Notice
When using this manual, please consider the following important points:

1. The policies and procedures outlined in the manual will never supersede current regulation. To the best of our knowledge, these guidelines reflect current regulation; nevertheless, they cannot be considered universal recommendations. For individual application, all recommendations must be considered in light of the resident's condition. The authors and publishers disclaim responsibility for any adverse effects resulting directly or indirectly from the suggested procedures, from any undetected errors, or from the reader's misunderstanding of the text or video content.
2. Regulations and interpretations will change and it is your responsibility to ensure that the assisted living or residential care community is operated under the guidelines outlined in current regulation. Review regulations, policy, procedures and instructions to ensure compatibility with the regulations your community is obligated to abide by.
3. The guidelines outlined in this manual will never supersede a state regulatory agency's directive, physician order, or direction from a licensed medical professional.
4. Hands-on resident care of any kind should always be in accordance with physician orders. The interventions in this manual are not intended to be personalized plans of care.
