Institute (IFPRI),2019-12-31 This document provides an overview of the coverage of the new release of the 2019 version of the Statistics on Public Expenditures for Economic Development SPEED database Key issues related to currency redenomination and changes in definition of sector expenditure and how they are addressed to ensure cross country and intertemporal comparability are presented The database covers 164 countries from 1980 to 2017 for eleven sectors agriculture communication education defense health mining social protection fuel and energy transport transport and communication as a group and other Indicators reported include percentage of sector expenditure in total expenditure percentage of total expenditure to total gross domestic product and per capita sector and total expenditure in constant prices Significant effort has been put into recording the sources methods and issues related to each individual data point so as to allow for easy replication or verification of any data value The Rise and Fall of Belarusian Nationalism, 1906-1931

Per Anders Rudling,2015-02-27 Modern Belarusian nationalism emerged in the early twentieth century during a dramatic period that included a mass exodus multiple occupations seven years of warfare and the partition of the Belarusian lands In this original history Per Anders Rudling traces the evolution of modern Belarusian nationalism from its origins in late imperial Russia to the early 1930s The revolution of 1905 opened a window of opportunity and debates swirled around definitions of ethnic racial or cultural belonging By March of 1918 a small group of nationalists had declared the formation of a Belarusian People s Republic BNR with territories based on ethnographic claims Less than a year later the Soviets claimed roughly the same area for a Belarusian Soviet Socialist Republic BSSR Belarusian statehood was declared no less than six times between 1918 and 1920 In 1921 the treaty of Riga officially divided the Belarusian lands between Poland and the Soviet Union Polish authorities subjected Western Belarus to policies of assimilation alienating much of the population At the same time the Soviet establishment of Belarusian language cultural and educational institutions in Eastern Belarus stimulated national activism in Western Belarus Sporadic partisan warfare against Polish authorities occurred until the mid 1920s with Lithuanian and Soviet support On both sides of the border Belarusian activists engaged in a process of mythmaking and national mobilization By 1926 Belarusian political activism had peaked but then waned when coups d etats brought authoritarian rule to Poland and Lithuania The year 1927 saw a crackdown on the Western Belarusian national movement and in Eastern Belarus Stalin s consolidation of power led to a brutal transformation of society and the uprooting of Belarusian national communists As a small group of elites Belarusian nationalists had been dependent on German Lithuanian Polish and Soviet sponsors since 1915 The geopolitical rivalry provided opportunities but also liabilities After 1926 maneuvering this complex and progressively hostile landscape became difficult Support from Kaunas and Moscow for the Western Belarusian nationalists attracted the interest of the Polish authorities and the increasingly autonomous republican institutions in Minsk became a concern for the central government in the Kremlin As Rudling shows Belarus was a historic battleground that served as a political tool borderland and buffer zone between greater powers Nationalism arrived late was limited to a relatively small elite and was suppressed in its early stages The tumultuous process however established the idea of Belarusian statehood left behind a modern foundation myth and bequeathed the institutional framework of a proto state all of which resurfaced as building blocks for national consolidation when Belarus gained independence in 1991 A
