Bob Kasper's Sting of the Scorpion Bob Kasper, 2009-04-01 This is a book about knife combat it is about carrying a knife as a deadly weapon and when the need for deadly force arises knowing how to use it It is about a fighting knife how to carry it how to draw it and how to engage it in a kill or be killed situation Bob Kasper left no doubt why he wrote this book Many of you may already be familiar with Kasper from his writings in Tactical Knives magazine his knife designs especially the Scorpion or his practical instruction in the tactics techniques and procedures of edged weapon combat Those of you who never had the chance to train with correspond with or read his writings are in for a treat Paladin is honored to be able to offer Bob Kasper's Sting of the Scorpion to the public for the very first time In it Kasper imparts his considerable knowledge about knife design selection carry and draw but most important he reveals his time tested principles for using the knife on the battlefield In his exclusive foreword training partner and friend Kelly McCann sums it up best Bob Kasper's Sting of the Scorpion was written by a guy who had both been stung and had stung something too important to overlook against a backdrop of ever increasing skilled but perhaps not experienced instructors We're all fortunate Bob wrote down his thoughts beliefs and training methodology regarding edged weapons or his untimely passing would've left an even larger void than it did

Bob Kasper's Tactical Knives Pat Kasper, 2011-03-01 Bob Kasper had that rarest of qualities among self defense instructors real world street smarts as opposed to the much more common dojo smarts A former Marine and student of personal defense pioneer Charles Nelson Kasper had picked up his experience in close quarter self defense the hard way on the street where it really counted As a Marine Corps designated close combat subject matter expert he helped create the Corps close combat knife curriculum For a period he also worked for Kelly McCann's highly regarded training company teaching military and government students how to survive while deployed to high risk areas of operation While equally adept at close combat firearms and knife fighting techniques Kasper had a special interest in knives That lifelong passion combined with his hands on experience made him the perfect candidate to write the Street Smarts column for Tactical Knives magazine For five years from January 1997 until January 2002 Kasper filled Street Smarts with his own unique perspective on staying alive in the world's most dangerous environments He also penned several features on fighting knives for the magazine Now for the first time all his Tactical Knives writings have been compiled under one cover so that a new generation of knife enthusiasts and self defense students can benefit from his practical real world advice on selecting training with using and defending against any type of edged weapon

Bob Kasper's Individual Close Combat Volumes 1 & 2 Bob Kasper, 2004-10-01 After World War II training in hand to hand combat stopped abruptly as interest in the Eastern martial arts blossomed Convinced that these close quarter techniques which had been forged in the streets of Shanghai China and tempered in the Pacific and European theaters of war represented the true essence of close combat and concerned that these skills would be lost forever a handful of men decided to preserve this knowledge One of these men was Bob Kasper A student of the late Charles Nelson Bob Kasper wrote these two volumes of individual close combat techniques for his students but never published them The first volume is on principles and tactics while the second volume concentrates on stance and movement By offering these two volumes to the public for the very first time Paladin is not only helping to preserve the techniques designed and battle field tested by World War II combatives pioneers a task that Kasper dedicated much of his life to it is also preserving the work of another close combat legend Bob Kasper This book contains an exclusive new foreword by Kelly McCann who trained in combatives and knife fighting with Kasper
