Readers: How Speakers Interact with Their Critics

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

For generations there has been debate regarding the best way to select representatives of society. Two representative systems have been institutionalized: one is known as the first, the other as the second. The first is the system of direct democracy, the second is the system of indirect democracy. The first is the system of direct democracy, the second is the system of indirect democracy. The first is the system of direct democracy, the second is the system of indirect democracy.
