sister's relatability and love Rosemary Nyirumbe María Ruiz Scaperlanda, 2019-01-16 Sister Rosemary Nyirumbe's 62 years of life provide a powerful testament to God's presence, love, and hope amidst unimaginable violence. Throughout these many years, her native Uganda and southern Sudan, now South Sudan, have suffered the devastating effects of war and military clashes. Children, as the most vulnerable population, have suffered the most, being orphaned, kidnapped, forced to become child soldiers, and sex slaves. In Rosemary Nyirumbe: Sewing Hope in Uganda, María Ruiz Scaperlanda brings to light Sister Rosemary's vocation of loving presence to these youth in the midst of this cultural and societal obliteration. As a Sister of the Sacred Heart of Jesus for over 45 years, Sister Rosemary, even at great risk to herself, continues to minister to children enduring the violence around them, teaching practical skills while helping them to heal, forgive, and hope. Her work, taking in girls escaping captivity by Joseph Kony and his Lord's Resistance Army (LRA), has earned her international recognition. She has been named one of TIME magazine's 100 Most Influential People in the World, is the subject of the book Sewing Hope and an award-winning documentary by the same name narrated by Academy Award-winning actor Forest Whitaker. She received the United Nations Women's Impact Award and has been named a CNN Hero. Healing the Racial Divide Lincoln Rice, 2014-10-23 Healing the Racial Divide retrieves the insights of Dr. Arthur Falls (1901-2000) for composing a renewed theology of Catholic racial justice. Falls was a Black Catholic medical doctor who dedicated his life to healing rifts created by white supremacy and racism. He integrated theology, the social sciences, and personal experience to compose a salve that was capable of not only integrating neighborhoods but also eradicating the segregation that existed in Chicago hospitals. Falls was able to reframe the basic truths of the Christian faith in a way that unleashed their prophetic power. He referred to those Catholics who promoted segregation in Chicago as believers in the mythical body of Christ, as opposed to the mystical body of Christ. The mythical body of Christ is a heretical doctrine that excludes African Americans and promotes the delusion that white people are the normative measure of the Catholic faith. Black Catholic Studies Reader David J. Endres, 2021-04-16 This first ever Black Catholic Studies Reader offers an introduction to the theology and history of the Black Catholic experience from those who know it best: Black Catholic scholars, teachers, activists, and ministers. The reader offers a multi-faceted interdisciplinary approach that illuminates what it means to be Black and Catholic in the United States. This collection of essays from prominent scholars, both past and present, brings together contributions from theologians M. Shawn Copeland, Kim Harris, Diana Hayes, Bryan Massingale, and C. Vanessa White, and historians Cecilia Moore, Diane Batts Morrow, and Ronald Sharps, and selections from an earlier generation of thinkers and activists including Thea Bowman, Cyprian Davis, and Clarence Rivers. Contributions delve into the interlocking fields of history, spirituality, liturgy, and biography. Through their contributions, Black Catholic Studies scholars engage theologies of liberation and the reality of racism, the Black struggle for recognition within the Church, and the distinctiveness of African-inspired spirituality, prayer, and worship. By considering their racial and religious identities, these select Black Catholic theologians and historians add their voices to the contemporary conversation surrounding culture race and religion in America inviting engagement from students and teachers of the American experience social commentators and advocates and theologians and persons of faith

A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei, 1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei's book is also more radical

The New Book of Christian Martyrs Johnnie Moore, Jerry Pattengale, 2023-03-07 An inspiring keepsake that honors the heroic sacrifice of today's martyrs for the Christian faith and shows how their actions mirror the courage of a long line of brave Christians In the twenty first century we are witnessing an escalation in Christian persecution like we have rarely seen since the first century Many people don't realize that today thousands of Christians are dying cruel deaths throughout much of the world There were in fact more martyrs in the last century than in all the previous Christian centuries combined Millions have given their lives since the fall of Rome and today tens of thousands die annually for their faith in Jesus Most of these modern stories are not legendary in fact many are unknown The New Book of Christian Martyrs commemorates those modern day heroes In this update to Foxe's Book of Martyrs Johnnie Moore and Jerry Pattengale highlight key martyrs of past centuries and feature stories of contemporary martyrs around the world Through tears Johnnie and Jerry offer this compendium of heroes from the first century to the twenty first century from Europe to Africa and from Asia to the Americas to inspire Christians around the globe Today we live in solidarity with them and in the next life we will rejoice by their side We will never forget their sacrifice for the truth

Saved and Sanctified Deidre Helen Crumbley, 2012-04-22 On one level this book tells a very particular story of a church started by a charismatic woman born just 16 years after the Emancipation Proclamation which not only survived the death of the founder but also institutionalised power sharing by female and male elders On another level it tells a more universal human story of institution building establishing community and pursuing a life of faith while negotiating rapidly changing and often adversarial social realities
