African Voices On Structural Adjustment:

African Voices on Structural Adjustment P. Thandika Mkandawire, Charles Chukwuma Soludo, 2003 Compiled in response to the World Bank's controversial two volume evaluation study on Adjustment in Africa and the need for critical appraisal of the Structural Adjustment Programme's development strategies the essays included here touch on issues which have been accorded very little attention in the SAP framework as well as those which have generated the most controversy These include an evaluation of the methodologies for performance evaluation under SAP financial sector reforms and resource mobilisation poverty under adjustment trade liberalisation and more African Voices on Structural Adjustment

Codesria, International Development Research Centre (Canada), 2003 African Voices on Structural Adjustment presents 14 in depth studies on the history and future of structural adjustment in Africa Each study appraises the performance of structural adjustment policies SAPs with respect to a particular sector or issue Each evaluates the compatibility of SAPs with the requirements for long term development in Africa And most importantly each presents a truly African perspective The contributors represent an outstanding collection of leading African economists and development experts This volume is intended as a companion to Our Continent Our Future It will appeal to students professors academics and researchers in development economics and African studies professionals in donor organizations around the world and economic policymakers in both the governmental and non governmental sectors

The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book's core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today Themes in West Africa's History Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, 2006-01-15 There has long been a need for a new textbook on West Africa's history In Themes in West Africa's History editor Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong and his contributors meet this need examining key themes in West Africa's prehistory to the present through the lenses of their different disciplines The contents of the book comprise an introduction and thirteen chapters divided into three parts Each chapter provides an overview of existing literature on major topics as well as a short list of recommended reading and breaks new ground through the incorporation of original research The first part of the book examines paths to a West African past including perspectives from archaeology ecology and culture linguistics and oral traditions Part two probes environment society and agency and historical change through essays on the slave trade social inequality religious interaction poverty disease and urbanization Part three sheds light on contemporary West Africa in exploring how economic and political developments have shaped religious expression and identity in significant ways Themes in West Africa s History represents a range of intellectual views and interpretations from leading scholars on West Africa s history It will appeal to college undergraduates graduate students and scholars in the way it draws on different disciplines and expertise to bring together key themes in West Africa s history from prehistory to the present The Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics Célestin Monga,Justin Yifu Lin,2015-07-02 A popular myth about the travails of Africa holds that the continent s long history of poor economic performance reflects the inability of its leaders and policymakers to fulfill the long list of preconditions to be met before sustained growth can be achieved These conditions are said to vary from the necessary quantity and quality of physical and human capital to the appropriate institutions and business environments While intellectually charming and often elegantly formulated that conventional wisdom is actually contradicted by historical evidence and common sense It also suggests a form of intellectual mimicry that posits a unique path to prosperity for all countries regardless of their level of development and economic structure In fact the argument underlining that reasoning is tautological and the policy prescriptions derived from it are fatally teleological low income countries are by definition those where such ingredients are missing None of today s high income countries started its growth process with the required and complete list of growth ingredients Unless one truly believes that the continent of Africa and most developing countries are ruled predominantly if not exclusively by plutocrats with a high propensity for sadomasochism the conventional view must be re examined debated and questioned This volume the second of the Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics reassesses the economic policies and practices observed across the continent since independence It offers a collection of analyses by some of the leading economists and development thinkers of our time and reflects a wide range of perspectives and viewpoints Africa s emergence as a potential economic powerhouse in the years and decades ahead amply justifies the scope and ambition of the book Unleashing Africa's Resilience: Pan-Africanist Renaissance In a New African Century Costantinos Berhutesfa Costantinos,2014-04-22 Africa includes five of the world s fastest growing economies as well as a treasure chest of natural resources Those very things however have caused multinational corporations to flock to the continent in an attempt take control of those resources An African renaissance is hard to conceptualize but that is exactly what is beginning to effect real change with the assistance of both public officials and ordinary citizens This study theorizes an African renaissance as the dynamic interaction of strategy and process and seeks to motivate researchers to shift analysis in that direction This shift emphasizes the task of broadly structuring African renaissance as a geopolitical system is more important than that of promoting it within a specific program of nations Unleashing Africa s Resilience provides the necessary tools for research based policymaking and the critical thinking needed to help Africa build a vibrant economy and become a more prominent player on the world stage African

Dynamics in a Multipolar World ,2013-05-16 Fifty years after the foundation of the OAU and the consolidation of most African states and institutions the international panorama and Africa s position in it have changed considerably The world s geopolitical and economic configuration has evolved with new actors appearing in a new period of globalization In tone with ECAS 2013 this volume proposes that the experiences appearing in Africa question dominant paradigms in terms of political practice and academic reflection and thus offer a clear challenge to the academic community The volume offers clues to answer questions such as What is the impact of the current processes of globalization for African countries and African citizens How should African Studies be engaged to gauge African dynamics both at a local and global level What interdisciplinary means and tools should be brought in to produce an epistemologically relevant view or narrative of the issues under analysis

Matriarchy, Patriarchy, and Imperial Security in Africa Marsha R. Robinson,2012-01-01 Matriarchy Patriarchy and Imperial Security in Africa is an interdisciplinary treatment of a topic that is usually addressed by political scientists and military strategists Rather than follow Thomas P M Barnett s Samuel Huntington s and Edward Sa d s top down approach to the turn of the twenty first century clash of the West and the Rest this book takes readers on a three thousand year grassroots journey through imperialism linguistics and applied critical theory to show readers that peace eludes us because we are not all working with the same definition of national security By adding a Saharan world trade system to the conventional Oriental Occidental binary of traditional Western Civilization narratives this book opens a view of Western Europe as a colonized territory of a medieval Roman empire that never died A parallel imperial reorganization occurred in West Asia Both systems deployed patriarchy as a gender bomb to implode and conquer matriarchal economies This clash of European West Asian and African matriarchal and patriarchal empires was the crucible that produced the United States of America as elder sibling of the family of post colonial frontier nations The author argues that patriarchal imperialists of Africa Western Asia and Western Europe tempted matriarchal men to betray the rights of women in exchange for the benefits of patria potestas Patriarchal empires then corrupt definitions of fatherhood and dehumanize the conquered men until they suffer from a societal malaise that the author calls patria impotestas Such economically castrated men revolted in the past and they respond now with twenty first century mass protests against austerity measures in Europe and protests against Wall Street in the U S as well as with acts of terrorism and tragically war crimes against women In this book the most insecure people are the elite The author concludes that terrorism piracy and acts of sabotage against industrial physical plants will continue in Africa Asia and the West until ordinary people around the world have positive answers to the Primordial Question Will my family eat today and sleep peacefully through the night

African Voices in Education Philip Higgs,2000 The Africanisation of education is a highly topical issue The potentials and pitfalls of Africanisation have drawn a great deal of critical debate both in Africa and abroad After the political changes of 1994 in South Africa there has been renewed interest in the question of a distinctively African philosophy This publication provides a systematic and clear exposition of an African voice in education drawing on distinguished authors across Africa Employment, Inequality and Globalization Rolph van der Hoeven, 2013-09-13 The nature of globalization and the fallout from the international financial crisis have brought profound changes to societies and economies around the world This book documents that over the last two decades the growth of nonstandard and informal employment has led to greater inequalities This is partly explained by the fact that adjustment policies in the 1980s market liberalization policies in the 1990s and more recently globalization and anti poverty policies did not pay sufficient attention to policies for employment and income redistribution As a response to these trends this book recommends the development of clearer policies for employment and income redistribution These policies should now become an integral part of national and international economic policy making This is even more relevant in the current context of the international financial crisis as Several elements of globalization especially the unfettered markets and the growing inequality have given cause to the current crisis and There is growing evidence that the employment human and social effects of the financial crisis will be felt well after an economic recovery has taken place especially if no corrective action is taken This volume will be of benefit to policymakers scholars and practitioners alike This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Human Development and Capabilities
