The man, with short dark hair, is wearing a grey sweater and blue jeans. They are looking at each other with affection. In the background, a red barn and a house are visible under a sunset sky with soft clouds.

Shawn Henning's new book is a powerful and overwhelming tribute and legacy to Michael Jackson. In one book, he's collected love letters, reflections, eulogies, poems, essays, and drawings from people throughout the world who have a special appreciation for the King of Pop, Michael Jackson. I was particularly impressed at the diversity of material from so many different countries and cultures— all of it heartfelt and illuminating. In We Love You More, we learn about the many different ways that Michael Jackson affected people from all walks of life. The participants talk about how Michael's music, creativity, and public example affected their lives and helped them to be better people. The contributions are a wonderful cathartic output to help to come to terms with the loss of Michael's huge talent. They will not only comfort those who have written them but those who read them. People will learn about the experiences they have in common with people throughout the world who followed Michael's career: his music, his good deeds, and the example he set for this generation and generations to come. The book will also be of comfort to Michael's own family. They will see that the spirit of Michael will continue in people everywhere and in many ways and for many reasons. It's also fascinating to learn what people have to say about different songs and what they meant to their lives. I'm impressed by the diverse elements in the book: from eulogies to memories to poems and beautiful drawings and paintings and even photo montages at the end. Mr. Henning, you've done a wonderful service to the Michael Jackson fan community, and I commend you. Sincerely yours, Larry Nimmer. The Journey Of The Book Continues.
