Against The Dead Hand The Uncertain Struggle For Global Capitalism:

Against the Dead Hand Brink Lindsey, 2002-01-04 A refreshing insightful look into the political and economic dynamics driving globalization today Globalization it s earlier than you think That s the provocative message of Against the Dead Hand which traces the rise and fall of the century long dream of central planning and top down control and its impact on globalization revealing the extent to which the dead hand of the old collectivist dream still shapes the contours of today s world economy Mixing historical narrative thought provoking arguments and on the scene reporting and interviews Brink Lindsey shows how the economy has grown up amidst the wreckage of the old regime detailing how that wreckage constrains the present and obscures the future He conveys a clearer picture of globalization s current state than the current conventional wisdom providing a framework for anticipating the future direction of the world economy A World Without Walls Mike Moore, 2003-01-21 Mike Moore s insight as Director General of the World Trade Organization contributes to the globalization debate Corporate Responsibility Michael Blowfield, Mick Blowfield, Alan Murray, 2014 This textbook examines the multiple dimensions to corporate responsibility creating a framework that presents a historical and interdisciplinary overview of the field a summary of different management approaches and a review of the key actors and trends worldwide Resolving Disputes in the Asia-Pacific Region Shahla F. Ali, 2010-10-18 How diverse cultures approach conflict in the context of the integration of global markets is a new arena for research and practice To date most of the research on international arbitration has focused exclusively on Western models of arbitration as practiced in Europe and North America While such studies have accurately reflected the geographic foci of international arbitration practice in the late twentieth century the number of international arbitrations conducted in East Asia has recently been growing steadily and on par with growth in Western regions Resolving Disputes in the Asia Pacific Region presents empirical research about the attitudes and perceptions of over 115 arbitrators judges lawyers and members of the rapidly expanding arbitration community in China Hong Kong Korea Japan Singapore and Malaysia as well as North America and Europe The book covers both international commercial arbitration and alternative techniques such as mediation providing an empirical analysis of how both types of dispute resolution are conducted in the East Asian context The book examines the history and cultural context surrounding preferred methods of dispute resolution in the East Asian region and sheds light on the various approaches to international arbitration across these diverse regions This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of international arbitration and dispute resolution comparative and Asian law as well as anyone dealing with potential conflict in international business relationships in East Asia Property Rights Dynamics Donatella Porrini, Giovanni. Ramello, 2009 Issues such as the patentability of scientific ideas the market for organs and open source software are hotly debated and yet poorly understood In particular there is a great need for sound economic theorizing on such issues There is also a need for a clear and concise exposition of the state of the art of the economics of property rights

This book fulfils these various needs European Integration, 1950-2003 John Gillingham, 2003-06-02 Integration is the most significant European historical development in the past fifty years eclipsing in importance even the collapse of the USSR Yet until now no satisfactory explanation is to be found in any single book as to why integration is significant how it originated how it has changed Europe and where it is headed Professor Gillingham's work corrects the inadequacies of the existing literature by cutting through the genuine confusion that surrounds the activities of the European Union and by looking at his subject from a truly historical perspective The late twentieth century has been an era of great though insufficiently appreciated accomplishment that intellectually and morally is still emerging from the shadow of an earlier one of depression and modern despotism This is a work then that captures the historical distinctiveness of Europe in a way that transcends current party political debate Cato Handbook on Policy Cato Institute, 2005 Details how legislators can return the federal government to the size and scope envisioned by the Founding Fathers Crossing Borders Harry I.

Chernotsky, Heidi H. Hobbs, Brenda M. Kauffman, Sasha Allgayer, 2025-06-18 Crossing Borders International Studies for the 21st Century provides a framework to help students understand world issues built upon an understanding of the many borders that define the international system In the Fifth Edition renowned authors Harry I Chernotsky and Heidi H Hobbs are joined by new coauthors Brenda M Kauffman and Sasha Allgayer to address many of the different fields that constitute international studies geography politics economics sociology and anthropology and give instructors a starting point from which they can pursue their own disciplinary interests In addition to developing a better understanding of the world students also learn how to increase their own global engagement through study abroad internships and career options FROM

RETROECONOMICS TO SANCTIONOMICS: ESSAYS ON UNCONVENTIONAL ECONOMICS Vladimer Papava, 2024-12-04 A wide ranging stimulating and unconventional set of essays on the state of economics and economic policy Everyone will find something of interest in these reflections DANI RODRIK Professor of International Political Economy Harvard's John F Kennedy School of Government Harvard University President of the International Economic Association USA A wide ranging group of essays on current issues of economic policy informed by theory and enlightened by the perspective of an astute observer in post Soviet Georgia with excellent views facing both East and West JAMES K GALBRAITH Lloyd M Bentsen Jr Chair in Government Business Relations and Professor of Government The University of Texas at Austin USA Professor Vladimer Papava has lived through major upheavals such as a post socialist transition and a global financial crisis keeping an eye on the developments from his vantage point in Tbilisi Georgia The stimulating essays that have resulted from his observations collected in this volume share a heterodox stance one that showcases appreciation for and creative destruction of mainstream economics Economists and other social scientists will be introduced to novel promising approaches which themselves derive from an enviably wide ranging examination of the international literature Just as we learn in Professor Papava's essays how to avoid a post socialist necroeconomy where production of goods with no demand continues the volume itself helps protect us against a necroeconomic scientific discipline May the unconventional become conventional JAMES A LEITZEL Executive Director of Public Policy Studies Harris School of Public Policy University of Chicago USA A book to be read and studied as one digs through a mine in search of many gold veins in this case formed through the author s intellectual curiosity long standing scholarly work and experience SERGIO MARIOTTI Professor Emeritus Dept of Management Economics and Industrial Engineering Politecnico di Milano Italy New Frontiers in Free Trade Razeen Sally,2008 Razeen Sally argues that international trade policy has lost its way Trade policy has become disconnected from 21st century business and consumer realities The World Trade Organization and free trade agreements have outdated negotiating models and yield diminishing returns Sally makes a case for the benefits of free trade and provides a penetrating analysis of the dangers confronting the world trading system BOOK JACKET
