

A photograph of a dirt path leading into a forest. The path is light brown and leads towards a bright opening in the trees. The trees on either side have autumn-colored foliage in shades of yellow, orange, and red. The overall scene is somewhat dark and moody, with the path leading the eye towards the center.

Nothingness not being

being emptiness.

A Commentary on Jean-Paul Sartre's Being and Nothingness Joseph S. Catalano,1985-09-15 A Commentary on Jean Paul Sartre s Being and Nothingness represents I believe a very important beginning of a deservingly serious effort to make the whole of Being and Nothingness more readily understandable and readable In his systematic interpretations of Sartre s book Catalano demonstrates a determination to confront many of the most demanding issues and concepts of Being and Nothingness He does not shrink as do so many interpreters of Sartre from such issues as the varied meanings of being the meaning of internal negation and absolute event the idiosyncratic senses of transcendence the meaning of the upsurge in its different contexts what it means to say that we exist our body the connotation of such concepts as quality quantity potentiality and instrumentality in respect to Sartre s world of things or the origin of negation Catalano offers what is doubtless one of the most probing original and illuminating interpretations of Sartre s crucial concept of nothingness to appear in the Sartrean literature Ronald E Santoni International Philosophical Quarterly

Sartre's 'Being and Nothingness' Sebastian Gardner,2009-01-01 This text presents a concise and accessible introduction Jean Paul Satre s existentialist book Being and Nothingness
