What is your opinion on the following classic Section B questions:

Question	Agree	Disagree
Do you agree that the current external environment is favourable for businesses in the UK at the moment?
Is organisational culture the most important reason big businesses fail globally?
Is it essential for a business to have new leadership in order to achieve significant change in strategy?
Overall is it in the best interests of UK businesses for Britain to remain in the European Union?
Does the continued growth of global businesses benefit society?

Dave's Tesco turnaround

When Dave Lewis took over as CEO of Tesco in August 2014 he had a pile of problems on his desk. The Unilever veteran (he worked there for 20+ years) known as “Draco Dave” had to act quickly.

On his first day in charge, Lewis sent an email to Tesco's 300,000 staff warning that it had “urgent issues” to deal with. The early discovery of a £225 million “black hole” in its accounts and a continued decline in sales and profits transformed Lewis’ job from turnaround to rescue.

What was to follow when Tesco was reported the Grocery Code Adjudicator accused of misreporting its suppliers. Tesco was fined £1.1m in January 2015 and currently carries a multi-million pound fine.

Since joining as CEO, Lewis has:

- Closed Tesco's HQ at Clarendon
- Reversed many of Tesco's former management including all involved in the accounting scandal
- Rationalised Tesco's product range, removing thousands of products and increasing inventory levels for the most popular ranges
- Sold non-core businesses and exited from South Korea
- Spent £250m on cutting prices and improving service
- Closed 42 stores and cancelled plans for another 40
