with it Using examples from across the world as well as from her own research Angela Phillips uses them to explain complex theoretical concepts She invites readers to consider how news is influenced by the culture from which it emerges as well as the way it is paid for and how different countries have approached the problem of ensuring that democracy is served by its media rather than being undermined by it Journalism has always been an early adopter of new technologies and the most recent changes are examined in the light of a history in which although platforms keep on changing journalism always survives The questions raised here are important for all students of journalism and all those who believe that journalism matters

Unfinished Business Judith Hamera,2017 Unfinished Business argues that U S deindustrialization cannot be separated from race specifically from choreographed movements of African Americans that represent or resist normative or aberrant relationships to work and capital in transitional times

Academic-Practitioner Relationships Jean M. Bartunek,Jane McKenzie,2017-07-06 While executives are keen to harness organizational knowledge and improve business performance the topic of how academics can produce rigorous and relevant theory in working relationships with practitioners is a much contested topic Many aspects of this knowledge co creation can create tensions and the ways in which research is conducted and published can affect practitioner acceptance as well as its consequent uptake and use in different contexts Expertly compiled by Jean Bartunek and Jane McKenzie with contributions from global thinkers in the field this book offers a concise and up to date review of the essential analysis and action underlying scholarly engagement with the world of business It discusses the sorts of capabilities academics need to collaborate effectively with practitioners and illustrates good practice through international case studies drawn from acknowledged centres of excellence These show how to negotiate different constituencies with different priorities values and practices to work together to produce research of rigor and relevance It will be a key reference and resource for all researchers who are engaged with practitioners and an invaluable tool for training academics to develop research with impact
