Paradise Lost and the Making of English Literary Criticism David A. Harper, 2023-12-20 Paradise Lost and the Making of English Literary Criticism identifies the early reception of Paradise Lost as a site of contest over the place of literature in political and religious controversy Milton s earliest readers and critics Dryden Addison Dennis Hume and Bentley confronted a poem and author at odds with the prevailing culture and the revanchist conservatism of the restored monarchy Grappling with the epic required navigating Milton s reputation as a fanatic who had called in print for Charles I s execution inveighed openly against monarchy on the eve of Charles II s return and held heretical views on the trinity baptism and divorce Harper argues that foundational figures in English literary criticism rose to this challenge by innovating new ways of reading producing creative and subversive rewritings of Paradise Lost articulating new theories of the sublime explaining the poem in the first substantial body of annotations for an English vernacular text and by pioneering early forms of textual criticism and editing

The Crisis of Global Capitalism Adrian Pabst, 2012-10-25 The current economic crisis stems from a deeper crisis of cultural imagination and civilisational ethics here is the starting point of this collection of essays which draw a new political economy facing the crisis of Western civilization This book gathers together a range of audacious and provocative readings of Caritas in Veritate the first papal encyclical that addresses issues immediately relevant for politic economic and social theory These readings embody the kind of fruitful dialogue Pope Benedict XVI wanted to generate with his radical discourse for an alternative political economy
