
ASWB Board Exam 2024 Practice Test (151-170)

During an intake, a client reports that he has been drinking heavily for years. As a result of his alcohol abuse, he lost his job and his wife left him. He realizes that "things need to change" and he has not had a drink in the last 12 hours. In order to assist this client, the social worker should FIRST:

A. Determine why he has decided to change now

B. Identify natural supports that can assist in recovery

C. Conduct a biopsychosocial-spiritual-cultural history to assist with designing interventions to support the client in his goal

D. Refer the client to a substance abuse treatment agency - answer ☐ D The client has been drinking heavily for years and has now reported stopping. He needs medical monitoring during withdrawal to ensure that it is done safely. This may include inpatient treatment. The setting in which the social worker is employed is unclear in the case vignette. Substance abuse treatment is specialized and will ensure that the client receives the proper level of care. Providing additional supportive services to the client may be helpful during his recovery, but he needs to undergo detoxification FIRST, which is best handled by a substance abuse agency. The social worker should facilitate the referral by making the linkage with the client and ensuring that he receives immediate assessment and treatment.

Which of the following is TRUE about spiritual development?

A. Most people eventually develop blind faith in a spiritual being by the end of their lives.

B. Individual spiritual development is stagnant throughout the life course.

C. Most models explain spiritual development along a continuum moving from "egocentric" to "conformist" to "universal."

D. Children start life with an integrated sense of self. - answer ☐ C

Most spiritual development models move from the "egocentric" (which is present in childhood) to "conformist" to "integration" or "universal." Individuals may move along the continuum during their life course or stay at the same point. The first stage is an
