Bitter Green Martin Corless Smith:

Verde amargo | Bitter Green Martin Corless-Smith, 2022-11-29 Este libro ofrece el caso de estudio perfecto para explorar algo que me parece crucial para la poesía contemporánea la relación del sinsentido con la belleza del lenguaje con la belleza descrita provisionalmente como impresiones sensoriales emocionales intelectuales o imaginativas fuertes y positivas ya sea por sí sola o en alguna de estas combinaciones Hace tiempo que pienso que lo indecible también debe participar de alguna manera en esta relación Lo que plantea el tema de la relación entre el sinsentido y lo indecible Es el sinsentido un intento valiente de articular lo indecible O es una especie de juego de manos que nos permite vislumbrarlo Bitter Green está lleno de ejemplos perfectos de bello sinsentido como los cuatro versos que abren una de sus páginas Un alcastraz que atraviesa el río no puede y un pardillo sin siquiera un canto el invierno salda las cuentas todas el agua sin cauce sobre la tierra This offers the perfect case study for exploring something that I feel is crucial to contemporary poetry the relationship of nonsense to beauty in language particularly written language with beauty provisionally described as strong and positive sensual emotional intellectual or imaginative impressions either alone or in some combination I've long thought that the unsayable must somehow also be involved in this relationship Which raises the question of the relationship between nonsense and the unsayable Is nonsense a valiant attempt to articulate the unsayable Or is it a kind of sleight of hand that allows us to catch a glimpse of it Bitter Green is full of perfect examples of beautiful nonsense such as the four lines that open one page A gannet thru the oil cannot and a linnet sans a song the winter is of every count the water without ground COLE SWENSEN

Anne Carson Joshua Marie Wilkinson, 2015-01-28 The first book of essays dedicated to the work of noted writer Anne Carson Bitter Green Martin Corless-Smith, 2015 The corporeal yet spiritually inclined poems of Bitter Green speak of art and lost love with an epigrammatic defenselessness Of Piscator Martin Corless-Smith, 1997 This is a collection of poems by Martin Corless Smith Populated by snakes birds vines insects and mysterious lovers Of Piscator is a dreamscape of natural and manmade jungles The Ongoing Mystery of the Disappearing Self Martin Corless-Smith, 2020-12-10 Poetry A painter and poet Corless Smith draws upon the water table of his own gifts to preserve destroy and create THE ONGOING MYSTERY OF THE DISAPPEARING SELF again and again Call the beautiful a surge in feeling an atmosphere a reaction a response to the world to our senses but whatever it is it cannot be held fast I keep returning to this line as the watermark or imprint of this collection something that's both a part of the paper it's written on and the means of its dissolution Bhanu Kapil This Fatal Looking Glass Martin Corless-Smith, 2015 Poetry Fiction A man in his forties is walking along the embankment of the river Thames He has recently abandoned his marriage and has thus imperilled his care and responsibility for his son whom he loves He now does not know if he is experiencing freedom or a condition of being irrevocably lost Or are these the same His brain or so he has read is a contorted maze of surfaces he must look this up But then what was the reality of the so called outside world One so seldom saw or touched anything except a surface that of the glittering river for instance which was like a looking glass or like love Unless one jumped in and drowned that is But then might not life and death seem the same Especially if one were a poet or a painter Which he was Both I mean Nicholas Mosley The Fool & the Bee Martin Corless-Smith, 2019 Poetry A masque it's all a mask celebrating the organic British nature transplants to US in layers of spring and subsequent decay within a long cultural history and a to middle age lifespan personal pain modernization human war gods and goddesses speaking anywhere The poem has an enormous and muscular musicality including prose musicality the Poet constantly wondering how to Bee how a Fool can Bee symbol of all good qualities sunniness industry royalty and divinity various Saints A stunning pleasurable book Alice Notley Martin Corless Smith is a gifted and brilliant poet His work is filled with poesy and all that can mean for the depth of the art The mind is vertical as it moves through the master box of diction and form Here is a generous voice with wild lyric runs and gorgeous music throughout we are only made richer by this tender work THE FOOL AND THE BEE is a fabulous book of the poetic imagination Peter Gizzi

Swallows Martin Corless-Smith, 2006 Swallows uses the metaphor of the House to explore the uncanny presence and absence of self and world in poetry With embodiments ranging from the eighteenth century inquiry into the whereabouts of the Sabine Villa a search determined to locate a physical site behind Horace's celebrated verse to lines transcribed from the walls of a house these poems acknowledge the desire for the presence of the physical in the written while they reify the beguiling distance between writing and the world Throughout the book swallows act as a kind of genius loci presences that arrive and depart continually Swallows is a continuation of Notley's neo Romantic desire to react through words to some original world to see that world as poetical and meaningful even as we acknowledge that the body of the poet vanishes in the instant of the poem that the world is not manifest in the poem and that it is impossible to know just what of the world or the self is ever iterable Odious Horizons Martin Corless-Smith, 2019 Poetry ODIIOUS HORIZONS ransacks and revives Horace for our contemporary world Part translations part re-visionings these radical yet often formal lyrics offer the stoical joyful praise for a simple life away from the insidious and toxic world of political power and material obsession What was Roman is now American and British and the terrifying horizons that were clear to Horace the end game of greed the downfall of the Republic is here even more alarming as we see rivers rise and hear the drums of civil war once more ODIIOUS HORIZONS fast forwards Horace's Odes written in 23 BC into percussive poems of today As Horace addressed the Tiber Maecenas or the grass of Mars Martin Corless Smith addresses the president the brown Potomac the lake of time and Worcestershire In luscious crossfire with brilliant wordplay Corless Smith smacks down ode the address to a particular subject meant to be sung with masterful acute control and unexpected ludic shifts amidst motifs of friendship love chronos and kairos war and peace and an abiding ethical insight Odious Horizons is consummate poetry for our time Norma Cole Here's Horace arriving in the 21st century seeking solace where he can even in England not the Augustan but still the mindful Horace keeping his hand in while keeping an eye out a Horace who won't waste a word a pithy world wary Horace friend well met in such gobby times Alan Halsey Martin Corless Smith's versions of Horace bankrupt the heart of its false commodities and plastic gods robbing us of exactly what we need stolen desire's guilty guilt that would turn ornate and hollow our simplest cares As for Horace so for us a world of political opprobrium the alarm of endless wars needless luxuries These poems serve as bracing tonic in their wit in their earthy care in their frank kindness to our age just as they have sung us back to health for thousands of years What's bitter here is a swig of local beer and the talk is public talk our daily cares our simple loves What more could any reader ask of a book of poetry than to be invited into the poem itself and once there to learn to sing those songs that give us back our ordinary hearts just as it has given me back mine just as it will give you back your own Dan Beachy Quick Bazaar Exchange and Mart, and Journal of the Household ,1879
