Black Lawyers White Courts The Soul Of South African Law:

Black Lawyers, White Courts Kenneth S. Brown, 2000 Brown Law U of North Carolina has traveled regularly to South Africa since 1986 to give trial advocacy training Based on and often quoting interviews he reveals the constraints black lawyers labored under during apartheid and their struggle to obtain justice for their clients Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank, Leslie J. Bank, 2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa's foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar's cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa

African Studies Series: The Struggle over State Power in Zimbabwe Karekwaivanane, George Hamandishe,

The Globalization of Legal Education Bryant G. Garth, Gregory C. Shaffer, 2022 Legal academics and practitioners in recent decades increasingly emphasize the so called globalization of legal education The diffusion of the Juris Doctor JD degree to Australia Hong Kong Japan and South Korea as well as the advent of a very similar Juris Master JM degree in China and a shift in the late 1980s and beyond to a new US influenced format in India exemplify shifts toward US legal education practices Flood 2014 The global and Americanizing trend is evident on the web sites of law schools around the globe with many law schools competing to be the most global in terms of their faculty curricula teaching methods and students Less pronounced but related to the literature on legal globalization is that on transnationalization and transnational processes which is a strong component of the move toward globalization in legal education As this book shows if we look to see what is celebrated as part of globalized law schools and faculties we see increased cross border flows of professors and students teaching of transnational legal subjects development of particular forms of teaching practice such as legal clinics explicit focus on transnational rankings and transnationalized scholarly communities sharing teaching and research methods and approaches across domains of law

The Politics of Principle Theunis Roux,2013-03-28 Uses a single country case study to enrich research on the role of constitutional courts in new democracies

Informality and Courts Björn Dressel,Raul Sanchez-Urribarri,2024-12-31 This volume explores an understudied aspect of courts The extent to which informal institutions and relational networks e g professional clientelist family etc relations affect how courts are organised and operate For instance to what extent can good personal relations outweigh professional merits in judicial appointment processes Or in what ways do international or domestic judicial networks help protect courts against other branches of power Our relational institutional perspective allows us to better understand a variety of important processes for the comparative study of courts including judicial appointments judicial decision making judicial administration institutional development inter branch relations corruption and court reform among others More importantly an emphasis on informality sheds new light on the accountability role of courts in democratic regimes at a time when democracy worldwide is at risk and authoritarian regimes are on the rise Bringing together the thoughts of scholars with different levels of seniority and disciplinary expertise this volume offers cross national engagement with theory providing systematic analyses of the configuration operation and roles of informal institutions and relations and their importance in different socio political contexts and legal systems

The Struggle over State Power in Zimbabwe George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane,2017-11-09 The establishment of legal institutions was a key part of the process of state construction in Africa and these institutions have played a crucial role in the projection of state authority across space This is especially the case in colonial and postcolonial Zimbabwe George Karekwaivanane offers a unique long term study of law and politics in Zimbabwe which examines how the law was used in the constitution and contestation of state power across the late colonial and postcolonial periods Through this he offers insight on recent debates about judicial independence adherence to human rights and the observation of the rule of law in contemporary Zimbabwean politics The book sheds light on the prominent place that law has assumed in Zimbabwe s recent political struggles for those researching the history of the state and power in Southern Africa It also carries forward important debates on the role of law in state making and will also appeal to those interested in African legal history

Litigating Across the Color Line Melissa Lambert Milewski,2018 In a largely previously untold story from 1865 to 1950 black litigants throughout the South took on white southerners in civil suits Drawing on almost a thousand cases

Milewski shows how African Americans negotiated the southern legal system and won suits against whites after the Civil War and before the Civil Rights struggle

Systemic Racism in South Africa Rupert Taylor, 2024-12-06 This book takes a critical macro level political sociological perspective to understanding South African politics and society Applying systemic racism theory to South Africa the author argues that South African society through its exclusionary social mechanisms has assumed a systemically racist form that deeply compromises questions of truth and justice Constitutive of and embedded in the structure of South African society racism has a reach and a durability that runs deep through the successive stages of segregationism apartheid and liberal democracy Showing the limits of the rule of law in a racist society the author offers a theoretically informed interpretation as to why the national liberation struggle has fallen short of its promise to deliver a better life for all and as to why truth and justice remain so deeply compromised in South Africa today The arguments advanced are supported by over thirty semi structured interviews conducted by the author with high profile South African politicians jurists and intellectuals as well as by using Truth and Reconciliation Commission hearing transcripts both public and top secret This thought provoking book is driven by the imperative to offer a compelling and sustained argument for taking a systemic racism approach to interpreting South Africa for scholars and students of sociology political science race and ethnic studies law and South African history
