Black Lesbian Romance Best Friends 6 Lesbian Erotic Stories:

Homoplot Esther Saxey, 2008 Homoplot analyses the lesbian gay and bisexual coming out story in fiction and autobiography from the late 1960s to the present day These stories are recognised as an invaluable record of lesbian gay or bisexual life However this book illuminates their equally vital role as active tools in the arduous project of creating gay lesbian and bisexual identities constructing the identities they seem to describe Homoplot shows how a popular twist of the plot or a single common character trait can be a powerful intervention into sexual politics Approaching these texts with the tools of queer criticism the book celebrates their success but also illuminates their chief problem how the need to create concrete sexual identities has often narrowed the range of queer experiences represented Despite the ongoing popularity of coming out stories this is the first book length study of the genre Homoplot surveys hundreds of examples including in depth readings of authors such as Jeanette Winterson Dorothy Allison Rita Mae Brown Oscar Moore Paul Monette and Aaron Fricke and provides an incisive account of the genre s defining features The book is essential reading for anyone considering queer literature or lesbian gay and bisexual identity in the twentieth century and beyond Researchers and students considering life history and autobiography will also benefit from its analysis of feminist and queer politics Cherished Love Evelyn Kennedy, 1988 Soul Snatcher Camarin Grae, 1988 What would you do if you woke up to find you had a twin you knew nothing about A lesbian alter ego mystery adventure Last September Helen Rose Hull, 1988 Seven luminous insightful stories form the crucible in which adolescent Cynthia Bates growing up in the early 20th century America learns the fragility of romantic illusion the limitations of her life both as a woman and as a woman drawn to other women and the potential within her to alter the shape of those barriers The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University, 1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen s Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women s novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women s fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women s fiction The Lesbian Periodicals Index Clare Potter,1986 Author and subject index for lesbian periodicals The Black and White of it Ann Allen Shockley,1987 Short stories about interracial lesbian relationships Rose Penski Roz Perry,1989 The story of two women Rose and her Partner Adelle they have lived together for eight years and they have made accommodations that all long term partners do Then Adelle s Doctor finds a mass in her breast Rose copes with her increasing fear by doing all the things she does best and the one thing she does best is cook A story of how a couple cope with news no one wants to hear
