Knitting has recently exploded in popularity Professionals punks and feminists are embracing this ancient craft an activity that was previously relegated to the realm of the traditional woman the mother and homemaker While knitting books featuring such hip projects as iPod cozies and yoga mat bags abound few explore the subculture of knitting in any depth Who are these people Why knitting why now Wills takes the reader on a fascinating tour of this subculture complete with lively anecdotes and revealing interviews Those who are new to the craft will enjoy a fascinating introduction to the knitting community while those who have been unable to put down their needles since knitting that first scarf will glean new ideas for their next blog session online shopping spree or knitting group get together Knitting has recently exploded in popularity Professionals punks and feminists are embracing this ancient craft an activity that was previously relegated to the realm of the traditional woman the mother and homemaker Books that cater to this new generation of knitters are flooding the market with patterns for such contemporary projects as iPod cozies yoga mat bags and laptop covers The attitude of these publications is decidedly hip featuring models sporting tattoos or piercings Missing from the avalanche of knitting books until now is one that fully explores the subculture of knitting Who are these people Why knitting why now Intrepid journalist and avid knitter Kerry Wills set out to find out She takes us on a fascinating tour through the history of knitting exploring the lives of such women as the revolutionary Elizabeth Zimmermann whose strong opinions and classic book Knitting without Tears popularized knitting in the 1970s anticipating current trends Wills visits knitting groups that meet at such places as a feminist vegetarian restaurant churches pubs and senior centers She describes political activists who knit tree cozies to protect the trees against developers groups that knit afghans for Afghans and knitters who make shawls for people with cancer She also explores online knitting communities Those who are new to the craft will come away feeling more connected to the history of knitting as well as to their place in today's universe of knitters while those who have been unable to put down their needles since stitching that first scarf will glean new ideas for their next blog session online shopping spree or knitting group get together

KnitLit the Third Linda Roghaar, Molly Wolf, 2010-04-28 Whether you're a veteran knitter or brand new to the needles KnitLit creators Linda Roghaar and Molly Wolf welcome you into their ever growing circle with KnitLit the Third an all new collection of stories about the ups downs ins and outs of knitting With more than seventy contributors casting on here you'll meet enthusiasts okay knit aholics who know the frustration of having one's needles confiscated at the airport You'll sympathize with owners of lush problem skeins that are impossible to knit You'll encounter the mysteries of never matching baby booties and the adventures of one suspicious knitter who's convinced that a fellow knitting blogger is really a celebrity author in disguise For those who approach this art from a more spiritual perspective there are the stories that remind us of the power of a simple stitch From the mother whose project provides comfort during her troubled pregnancy to a woman compelled to make dozens of blankets for Afghan refugees each knitted and purled row offers the potential to heal ourselves And so we spin on KnitLit the Third is the latest in a pattern of poignant hilarious bittersweet and inspiring yarns created by and for lovers of the craft

Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas, 2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville s The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day s Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett s Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson s Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan s Spider Cup 1990 embroidery Freak Nation Kate Stevens,2010-10-18 Vegans Skateboarders Trekkies The Cult of the Individual is alive and well and expressing itself all over America and this book proves it With this enlightening and sometimes frightening field guide you ll delve into the customs mores and motivations behind every type of fan geek and superfreak including Swingers Hackers Dungeon Masters Happening Artists Cryptozoologists Utopians Bohemians Shriners Oenophiles Deadheads From music to food sports to fashion there are people who take their hobbies to an extreme the rest of us can only imagine With this book you ll get a bird s eye view of these hobbies gone wild from sea to shining sea Hedonizing Technologies Rachel P. Maines,2009-08-01 Rachel P Maines s latest work examines the rise of hobbies and leisure activities in Western culture from antiquity to the present day As technologies are hedonized consumers find increasing pleasure in the hobbies associated tools methods and instructional literature Work once essential to survival and comfort gardening hunting cooking needlework home mechanics and brewing have gradually evolved into hobbies and recreational activities As a result the technologies associated with these pursuits have become less efficient but more appealing to the new class of leisure artisans Maines interprets the growth and economic significance of hobbies in terms of broad consumer demand for the technologies associated with them Hedonizing Technologies uses bibliometric and retail census data to show the growth in world markets for hobby craft tools books periodicals and materials from the late 18th century to today The book addresses basic issues in the history of labor and industry and makes an original contribution to the discussion of how technology and people interact Knitter's Life List Gwen W.
