Birth of a Nation Nigeria A Century In The Making:

NIGERIA: ECHOES OF A CENTURY Ifeoha Azikiwe, 2013-04-17 ONE HUNDRED years past and gone just like yesterday and Nigeria is still in transition Created on the vagaries of British imperialism Lord Frederick Lugard on January 1 1914 unilaterally stitched together two diametrically opposed Northern and Southern parts of the Niger bend to form an entity he called NIGERIA Since then Nigeria has remained changeless but with severe internal contradictions that threaten the shaky foundation on which it was formed By the amalgamation of 1914 Nigeria marks her centenary in 2014 a century that reverberates 46 years of colonial domination which set the agenda for political instability and internal conflicts 29 wasted years of incessant bloody military coups and dictatorship and 25 years of incoherent democratic governance Echoes of a Century discusses fundamental issues in Nigeria's loose federation as well as unresolved national challenges in the past 100 years It also examines the issue of leadership and its ceaseless manipulation through zoning federal character demography ethnicity and religion that revolve around individuals against national interests the politics and illusion of oil wealth that has become the nation's albatross endemic corruption and societal decadence that negate her growth and development and the clamour for a national conference to renegotiate the country's future Could Nigeria have done better as two separate entities as it were before the amalgamation of 1914 or better still as three separate nations as envisaged in 1957 against the encumbrances of its present structure where trust is lacking and confidence progressively eroding among federating units With visible cracks on its bonds of unity rising cases of religious bigotry and fundamentalism ethnic chauvinism and exclusion it is argued that should Nigeria eventually survive as one united nation it may not develop beyond the status of a third world country Foundation of Political Freedom in the Democracy of Nigeria Victor-Don

Sampson, 2015-05-30 Growth and Development of Multiple Political Party Systems in Nigeria In the present Nigeria there are so many active goal oriented political parties that have grown with the interest of the people at heart Political party system is the people's best choice for supporting democratic government Thus the Nigerian political party system has been producing through electoral democracy fortunate presidential candidates transparent senators successful federal and state House of Assembly representatives active state governors and great chairman of local government area Our party system indeed understands common human aims and work toward the people's political interest to better all sector of life in the nation The Nigerian People Alliances and Growth of Political Organizations A popular goal driven measure of supporting democratic leadership in Nigeria is by creating alliances and nongovernmental organizations In this country alliances has been used in pursuing democratic peace in government while nongovernmental organizations are solely for provision of human welfare through divergent humanitarian services Obviously many alliances and political groups or organizations also have been formed with interest and aspiration for national political development because many of them have the belief that successful governance can be possible when there is true and effective electoral democracy Birth Politics Ogechukwu Ezekwem

Williams,2025-08-19 An exploration of the cultural political religious and gender dynamics of Nigeria s maternal health care landscape In Birth Politics Ogechukwu E Williams examines the cultural political and medical connections that have shaped childbirth in Nigeria from the colonial era to the present Offering a unique perspective on competing frameworks and their influence on Nigerian maternal health care this book calls attention to the complex relationships between traditional midwives biomedical maternities and faith based birthing homes With a focus on Nigeria s colonial and post colonial history Williams explores how childbirth became a battleground for control legitimacy and societal transformation Through critical examination the work reveals how international organizations and local actors ranging from traditional healers to missionary nurses and Aladura faith leaders negotiated their roles within an evolving health care landscape By underscoring the intersections that emerged among these players it also addresses the urgent relevance of medical pluralism in tackling contemporary health inequities and Nigeria s ongoing challenges with maternal mortality Highlighting the influences of international organizations colonial administrators and indigenous practitioners Williams provides a comprehensive and nuanced history that redefines our understanding of reproductive health care and its deeply rooted connections to state power gender dynamics religious sentiments and cultural identity
