Asia/Pacific as Space of Cultural Production Rob Wilson, Arif Dirlik, 1994

Asia/Pacific as Space of Cultural Production Rob Wilson, Arif Dirlik, 1995 Although the Asia Pacific region occupies a prominent place in geopolitical thinking little is available to readers concerning the resistant communities and cultures of Pacific and Asian peoples This book fills that gap by documenting the efforts of diverse indigenous cultures to claim and reimagine Asia Pacific as a space for their own cultural production by presenting essays poems and memoirs by prominent Asia Pacific writers that resist appropriation by transnational capitalism through the articulation of autonomous local identities and counter histories of place and community In addition cultural critics spanning several locations and disciplines deconstruct representations particularly those on film and in novels that perpetuate Asia Pacific as a realm of EuroAmerican fantasy This collection offers a new perception of the Asia Pacific region by presenting the Pacific not as a paradise or vast emptiness but as a place where living struggling peoples have constructed contemporary identities out of a long history of hegemony and resistance back cover

What Is in a Rim? Arif Dirlik, 1998-03-05 This pathbreaking multidisciplinary work challenges our unthinking acceptance of such terms as Asia Pacific and Pacific Rim Clarifying the hidden power relationships and hegemonic struggles that are disguised by ideological constructions of the region the contributors uncover fundamental contradictions_including the human costs and consequences_that underlie the much celebrated economic boom In evaluating the idea of Asia Pacific the book shifts our focus from abstract relationships between capital and commodities to the human interactions that have played a formative part in the region's constitution The contributors agree that it is these interactions that constitute the region rather than the physical boundaries of the Pacific This revised and updated edition brings in additional essays focusing on conceptualizations of the Pacific considers more fully interactions among countries and strongly emphasizes peoples within the Pacific who are routinely ignored in most discussions of the Rim

Practicing Protestants Laurie F. Maffly-Kipp, Leigh E. Schmidt, Mark Valeri, 2006-08-28 This collection of essays explores the significance of practice in understanding American Protestant life The authors are historians of American religion practical theologians and pastors and were the twelve principal researchers in a three year collaborative project sponsored by the Lilly Endowment Profiling practices that range from Puritan devotional writing to twentieth century prayer from missionary tactics to African American ritual performance these essays provide a unique historical perspective on how Protestants have lived their faith within and outside of the church and how practice has formed their identities and beliefs Each chapter focuses on a different practice within a particular social and cultural context The essays explore transformations in American religious culture from Puritan to Evangelical and Enlightenment sensibilities in New England issues of mission nationalism and American empire in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries devotional practices in the flux of modern intellectual predicaments and the claims of late twentieth century liberal Protestant pluralism Breaking new ground in ritual studies and cultural history Practicing

Protestants offers a distinctive history of American Protestant practice      The Postcolonial Aura Arif Dirlik,2018-02-20 The essays in this volume range from questions of cultural self representation in China to more general problems of reconceptualizing global relationships in response to contemporary changes Although the new era of global capitalism calls for the remapping of global relations such remapping must be informed both by a grasp of contemporary structures of economic political and cultural power and by memories of earlier radical visions of society Without these two conditions Arif Dirlik argues the current preoccupation with Eurocentrism ethnic diversity and multiculturalism distract from issues of power that dominate global relations and that find expression in murderous ethnic conflicts Dirlik offers multi historicalism which presupposes a historically grounded conception of cultural difference seeks in different histories alternative visions of human society and stresses divergent historical trajectories against a future colonized presently by an ideology of capital Arguing that the operations of capital have brought the question of the local to the fore he points to indigenism as a source of paradigms of social relations and relationships to nature to challenge the voracious developmentalism that undermines local welfare globally      Repositioning the Missionary Vicente M. Diaz,2010-07-13 In the vein of an emergent Native Pacific brand of cultural studies Repositioning the Missionary critically examines the cultural and political stakes of the historic and present day movement to canonize Blessed Diego Luis de San Vitores 1627 1672 the Spanish Jesuit missionary who was martyred by Mata pang of Guam while establishing the Catholic mission among the Chamorros in the Mariana Islands The work juxtaposes official popular and critical perspectives of the movement to complicate prevailing ideas about colonialism historiography and indigenous culture and identity in the Pacific The book is divided into three sections The first From Above Working the Native focuses exclusively on the narratological reconsolidation of official Roman Catholic Church viewpoints as staked in the historic seventeenth century and contemporary twentieth century movements to canonize San Vitores including the symbolic costs of these viewpoints for Native Chamorro cultural and political possibilities not in line with Church views Section two From Below Working the Saint shifts attention and perspective to local competing forms of Chamorro piety In their effort to canonize San Vitores Natives also rework the saint to negotiate new cultural and social canons for themselves and in ways that produce new meanings for their island From Behind Transgressive Histories shifts from official and lay Roman and Chamorro Catholic viewpoints to the author s own critical project of rendering alternative portrayals of San Vitores and Mata pang Theoretically innovative and provocative humorous and inspired Repositioning the Missionary melds poststructuralist feminist Native studies and cultural studies analytic and political frameworks with an intensely personal voice to model a new critical interdisciplinary approach to the study of indigenous culture and history      Indigenous Diasporas and Dislocations Charles D. Thompson Jr.,2017-05-15 Indigenous religions are now present not only in their places of origin but globally They are significant parts of the pluralism and diversity of the contemporary world especially when their performance enriches and or challenges host populations Indigenous Diasporas and Dislocations engages with examples of communities with different experiences expectations and evaluations of diaspora life It contributes significantly to debates about indigenous cultures and religions and to understandings of identity and alterity in late or post modernity This book promises to enrich understanding of indigeneity and of the globalized world in which indigenous people play diverse roles

Rethinking Indonesia S. Philpott, 2000-09-05 This book employs alternative approaches to authoritarianism power domination and political identity in contemporary Indonesia It seeks to clarify the relationship between knowledge and real politics Drawing upon the thought of Edward Said and Michel Foucault the text argues that understandings of Indonesian political life are profoundly shaped by particular approaches to culture tradition ethnicity Cold War politics and modernity Power domination and the effects of authoritarianism on identity are key areas of discussion in this innovative and topical analysis of Indonesia and the study of its politics

American Pacificism Paul Lyons, 2006-09-27 This provocative analysis and critique of American representations of Oceania and Oceanians from the nineteenth century to the present argues that imperial fantasies have glossed over a complex violent history It introduces the concept of American Pacificism a theoretical framework that draws on contemporary theories of friendship hospitality and tourism to refigure established debates around orientalism for an Oceanian context Paul Lyons explores American Islander relations and traces the ways in which two fundamental conceptions of Oceania have been entwined in the American imagination On the one hand the Pacific islands are seen as economic and geopolitical stepping stones rather than ends in themselves whilst on the other they are viewed as ends of the earth or cultural limits unencumbered by notions of sin antitheses to the industrial worlds of economic and political modernity However both conceptions obscure not only Islander cultures but also innovative responses to incursion The islands instead emerge in relation to American national identity as places for scientific discovery soul saving and civilizing missions manhood testing adventure nuclear testing and eroticized furloughs between maritime work and warfare Ranging from first contact and the colonial archive through to postcolonialism and global tourism this thought provoking volume draws upon a wide rewarding collection of literary works historical and cultural scholarship government documents and tourist literature

The Rise of East Asia Mark Berger, Douglas Borer, 2002-09-11 There is great interest in the Pacific Century and what its implications for the future will be The rapid economic growth of East Asia was already setting the region apart from the rest of the world by the 1970s By the 1980s the trend was seen to have spread southward to Thailand Malaysia and Indonesia while China's provinces had also become integral to the regional economic boom In this exciting new study many of the ideas and expectations associated with the Pacific Century are placed under critical scrutiny The book includes studies of particular countries such as China Japan South Korea Vietnam Indonesia and Malaysia There is analysis of economic and political trends in the region the reasons behind its rise and its importance on a global scale The rise of East Asia represents an historic turning point with immense significance world wide This book will be of interest to anyone concerned about the new approaches to and the debate about the rise of east Asia and the coming of the Pacific Century
