Beginning Teachers Michael Crowhurst, 2015-04-27 In this collection of narratives beginning teachers describe and reflect on critical incidents classes that didn't quite go to plan These experiences are recalled in a general way and all names and locations are fictionalized Each narrative while situated in a classroom focuses on the experience of the teacher author and sheds light on their thinking as they work through the complex event they are remembering Beginning teachers then imagine how they might approach a similar situation in the future While developing reflective practice techniques can support and enhance individual practice when these accounts are shared with others there is some scope for enhancing educative experiences generally There is a long tradition of reflective practice writing in education and this small workbook aims to make a contribution to this genre Each reflective practitioner narrative is followed with an invitation to discussion section and periodically through the workbook sideline methodologies are introduced that readers can use to support further analysis The beginning teacher narratives are authentic complex and alive and as a consequence they will generate lively discussion in tutorial spaces with beginning teachers The materials are informed by various strands of poststructural and critical theory and therefore they are intended to reflect a dialogic stance rather than signpost specific directions

Text Types Anne Townsend, Anne Quill, 2012-01-01 Text Types a writing guide for students provides a clear reference tool for students teachers and parents to understand 30 different types of written texts both literary and factual This larger format Second Edition has been updated and expanded in the variety of text types and examples included Examples presented and analysed include many electronic texts According to the Australian Curriculum English students in years 7 to 10 are expected to plan draft and publish imaginative informative and persuasive texts using effective vocabulary and language features appropriate for the writer's purpose and the audience These texts may take a variety of formats for example a an everyday explanatory text a a media report a a literary text a a point of view or an argument expressed in a letter to the editor or a debate etc Text Types A writing guide for students Second Edition provides students with examples of all of these texts and more together with clear directions about how to write each one The book aims to provide the scaffolding and modelling necessary for the development of writing skills It provides teachers parents and students with a unique tool to improve writing skills and is suitable for use by students in midprimary to mid secondary school

Striving to Improve Series: Writing Book 1 Lindsay Marsh, 2018-03-01 The Striving to Improve Series targets students who for whatever reason are struggling to keep up with their peers The activities in the books are designed to prevent students from regressing any further at school The tasks are based on a modified curriculum so that students can work at their own pace and without constant supervision from the teacher The children who you teach may be struggling with their school work because they have been diagnosed with learning difficulties such as ADHD or dyslexia They may be struggling because of social factors which have resulted in them missing a lot of school Whatever the reason this book

Writing 1 will help students begin to write more clearly accurately and confidently Activities in this book link to the Australian Curriculum for Years 5 and 6 so children feel that what is being asked of them is actually achievable To make the tasks more manageable they have been broken down into small parts which gives each student the opportunity to process one idea at a time Time limits have been either abandoned or made flexible for students so success becomes a habit rather than a rarity Irwin Writing Project Rich,1993-01-01
