The American Colonies and the British Empire, 1607-1783, Part II vol 8 Steven Sarson, Jack P Greene, 2020-04-13 This second part of an eight volume reset edition traces the evolution of imperial and colonial ideologies during the British colonization of America It covers the period from 1764 to the end of the American Revolutionary War in 1783

Against Popery Evan Haefeli, 2020-12-15 Although commonly regarded as a prejudice against Roman Catholics and their religion anti popery is both more complex and far more historically significant than this common conception would suggest As the essays collected in this volume demonstrate anti popery is a powerful lens through which to interpret the culture and politics of the British American world In early modern England opposition to tyranny and corruption associated with the papacy could spark violent conflicts not only between Protestants and Catholics but among Protestants themselves Yet anti popery had a capacity for inclusion as well and contributed to the growth and stability of the first British Empire Combining the religious and political concerns of the Protestant Empire into a powerful if occasionally unpredictable ideology anti popery affords an effective framework for analyzing and explaining Anglo American politics especially since it figured prominently in the American Revolution as well as others Taking an interdisciplinary approach written by scholars from both sides of the Atlantic working in history literature art history and political science the essays in Against Popery cover three centuries of English Scottish Irish early American and imperial history between the early sixteenth and early nineteenth centuries More comprehensive inclusive and far reaching than earlier studies this volume represents a major turning point summing up earlier work and laying a broad foundation for future scholarship across disciplinary lines Contributors Craig Gallagher New England College Tim Harris Brown University Clare Haynes Independent Researcher Susan P Liebell St Joseph s University Brendan McConville Boston University Anthony Milton University of Sheffield Andrew R Murphy Virginia Commonwealth University Gregory Smulewicz Zucker Rutgers University New Brunswick Laura M Stevens University of Tulsa Cynthia J Van Zandt University of New Hampshire Peter W Walker University of Wyoming
