Bodies in Contact Antoinette Burton, Tony Ballantyne, 2005-01-31 From portrayals of African women's bodies in early modern European travel accounts to the relation between celibacy and Indian nationalism to the fate of the Korean comfort women forced into prostitution by the occupying Japanese army during the Second World War the essays collected in Bodies in Contact demonstrate how a focus on the body as a site of cultural encounter provides essential insights into world history Together these essays reveal the body as contact zone as a powerful analytic rubric for interpreting the mechanisms and legacies of colonialism and illuminating how attention to gender alters understandings of world history Rather than privileging the operations of the Foreign Office or gentlemanly capitalists these historical studies render the home the street the school the club and the marketplace visible as sites of imperial ideologies Bodies in Contact brings together important scholarship on colonial gender studies gathered from journals around the world Breaking with approaches to world history as the history of the West and the rest the contributors offer a panoramic perspective They examine aspects of imperial regimes including the Ottoman Mughal Soviet British Han and Spanish over a span of six hundred years from the fifteenth century through the mid twentieth century Discussing subjects as diverse as slavery and travel ecclesiastical colonialism and military occupation marriage and property nationalism and football immigration and temperance Bodies in Contact puts women gender and sexuality at the center of the master narratives of imperialism and world history Contributors Joseph S Alter Tony Ballantyne Antoinette Burton Elisa Camiscioli Mary Ann Fay Carter Vaughn Findley Heidi Gengenbach Shoshana Keller Hyun Sook Kim Mire Koikari Siobhan Lambert Hurley Melani McAlister Patrick McDevitt Jennifer L Morgan Lucy Eldersveld Murphy Rosalind O Hanlon Rebecca Overmyer Velázquez Fiona Paisley Adele Perry Sean Quinlan Mrinalini Sinha Emma Jinhua Teng Julia C Wells

Colonial Encounters in a Time of Global Conflict, 1914-1918 Santanu Das, Anna Maguire, Daniel Steinbach, 2021-09-28 This volume gathers an international cast of scholars to examine the unprecedented range of colonial encounters during the First World War More than four million men of color and an even greater number of white Europeans and Americans crisscrossed the globe Others in occupied areas behind the warzone or in neutral countries were nonetheless swept into the maelstrom From local encounters in New Zealand Britain and East Africa to army camps and hospitals in France and Mesopotamia from cafes and clubs in Salonika and London to anticolonial networks in Germany the USA and the Dutch East Indies this volume examines the actions and experiences of a varied company of soldiers medics writers photographers and revolutionaries to reconceptualize this conflict as a turning point in the history of global encounters How did people interact across uneven intersections of nationality race gender class religion and language How did encounters direct and mediated forced and unforced shape issues from cross racial intimacy and identity formation to anti colonial networks civil rights movements and visions of a post war future The twelve chapters delve into spaces and processes of encounter to explore how the conjoined realities of war race and empire were experienced recorded and instrumentalized Connected Worlds Ann Curthoys, Marilyn Lake, 2006-03-01 This volume brings together historians of imperialism and race travel and modernity Islam and India the Pacific and the Atlantic to show how a transnational approach to history offers fresh insights into the past Transnational history is a form of scholarship that has been revolutionising our understanding of history in the last decade With a focus on interconnectedness across national borders of ideas events technologies and individual lives it moves beyond the national frames of analysis that so often blinker and restrict our understanding of the past Many of the essays also show how expertise in Australian history can contribute to and benefit from new transnational approaches to history Through an examination of such diverse subjects as film modernity immigration politics and romance Connected Worlds weaves an historical matrix which transports the reader beyond the local into a realm which re defines the meaning of humanity in all its complexity Contributors include Tony Ballantyne Desley Deacon John Fitzgerald Patrick Wolfe and Angela Woollacott

Afghanistan and the Coloniality of Diplomacy Maximilian Drephal, 2019-09-25 This book offers an institutional history of the British Legation in Kabul which was established in response to the independence of Afghanistan in 1919 It contextualises this diplomatic mission in the wider remit of Anglo Afghan relations and diplomacy from the nineteenth to the twenty first century examining the networks of family and profession that established the institution s colonial foundations and its connections across South Asia and the Indian Ocean The study presents the British Legation as a late imperial institution which materialised colonialism s governmental practices in the age of independence Ultimately it demonstrates the continuation of asymmetries forged in the Anglo Afghan encounter and shows how these were transformed into instances of diplomatic inequality in the realm of international relations Approaching diplomacy through the themes of performance the body and architecture and in the context of knowledge transfers this work offers new perspectives on international relations through a cultural history of diplomacy Colonialism & Modernity Paul Gillen, Devleena Ghosh, 2007 Few books tell such a broad global history using an interdisciplinary approach that blends historical and cultural scholarship Author based at UTS

Irish Imperial Networks Barry Crosbie, 2011-11-17 This is an innovative study of the role of Ireland and the Irish in the British Empire which examines the intellectual cultural and political interconnections between nineteenth century British imperial Irish and Indian history Barry Crosbie argues that Ireland was a crucial sub imperial centre for the British Empire in South Asia that provided a significant amount of the manpower intellectual and financial capital that fuelled Britain's drive into Asia from the 1750s onwards He shows the important role that Ireland played as a centre for recruitment for the armed forces the medical and civil services and the many missionary and scientific bodies established in South Asia during the colonial period In doing so the book also reveals the important part that the Empire played in shaping Ireland's domestic institutions family life and identity in equally significant ways World Histories from Below Antoinette Burton, Tony Ballantyne, 2022-02-10 History has traditionally privileged elites and their accomplishments World Histories from Below provides an antidote placing ordinary people and subordinated subjects at the heart of the themes it explores Arguing that disruption and dissent are overlooked agents of historical change it takes a global view of topics including political revolution religious conversion labour struggles and body politics This 2nd edition includes two additional chapters on indigenous peoples migration and environmental histories from below With an updated preface this enhanced text also includes additional images and case studies to grapple with themes that have more recently come to the fore such as populism and the environment Offering a study of these themes from 1750 to the present day World Histories from Below refocuses our entire approach to teaching world history Letters and the Body, 1700-1830 Sarah Goldsmith, Sheryllynne Haggerty, Karen Harvey, 2023-07-04 This collection explores the multifaceted relationship between letters and bodies in the long eighteenth century featuring a broad selection of women's and men's letters written from and to Britain North America Europe India and the Caribbean from the labouring poor to the landed elite In eleven chapters scholars from various disciplines draw on different methodological approaches that include close readings of single letters social historical analyses of large corpora and a material culture approach to the object of the letter This research includes personal letters exchanged among family and friends formal correspondence and letters that were incorporated into published forewords and appendices journals and memoirs Part I explores the letter as a substitute for the absent body the imagined physical encounters and performances envisaged by letter writers and the means through which these imagined sensations were conveyed Part II examines the letter as a material object that served as a conduit for descriptions of the material body and as an instrument for embodied encounters Part III focuses on how correspondents purposefully used their bodies in letters as a means to create intimacy to generate social networks and build a body politic This interdisciplinary volume centred around letters will be of interest to scholars and students in a variety of fields including eighteenth century studies cultural history and literature
