Australian Women in Advertising in the Twentieth Century J. Dickenson,2016-04-29 When did Australian women first enter the advertising industry The stereotypical advertising executive might be a pony tailed Ferrari driving young ish man but women have worked in Australian advertising agencies from the first years of the modern industry and today they comprise half of the industry s workforce Australian Women in Advertising in the Twentieth Century rescues these women from their obscurity By employing a broader definition of advertising than usual this study reveals the important role women have played in the development of the Australian advertising industry sheds light on women s struggle to reach the higher echelons of the industry and considers why the popular image of the advertising executive is at such variance from the reality The experiences of these remarkable women across a century of Australian advertising provide valuable information on the role of gender in the development of this ubiquitous industry as well as the encroachment of consumer culture The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1900 Understanding Cultures Through Their Key Words Anna Wierzbicka,1997-08-07 This work demonstrates that every language has its key concepts expressed in key words and that these concepts reflect the core values of the culture in question Examining empirical evidence from five lanuages and using its own natural semantic metalanguage to provide an analytical framework it shows that cultures can be revealingly studied compared and explained to outsiders through their key concepts
