

Autobiography of Flower

At the crack of dawn, When I opened my eyes for the first time, I was a miniature bud on a gentle tendral of shrub in the dense woods. I could see all kinds of flowers around me, in variety of colours. I did not know that this place called woods untill the buzzing bee had whispered into my ears.

I was on cloud nine, When my eyes met with all sorts of tall trees, thick bushes, short shrubs, tiny ferns, green grass and lovely flowers all around me. Then all had gone to sleep as soon as the sun went down. I also slept dreaming that I would bloom into an attractive flower.

The next sunny morning, I was in a merry making spree as I bloomed into a stunning flower. My colour was red with velvety petals and few thorns on my stem. I danced and played with my pals in the cool breeze. Then, the noisy bee came and collected nectar from me. I was proud of my beauty.

Ooouch! Suddenly a gardener came & plucked me from the plant. It hurt a lot, he kept me in a basket with other flowers and sold me to a short, dark looking florist. Then, he crafted me with other flowers in lovely bouquet and wrapped into a golden paper.

The next fine day, a young lady came to the florist and bought us. She took us to the gigantic Temple. Then, She gave us to the kind priest to offer us into the feet of Lord Shiva. This was the most happiest moment of my life. I will always cherish that moment. I could have never asked for better end to my life that being laid down on the feet of Idol of God.

Now, I am Feeling blessed and I thanked Almighty with all my might for the wonderful moment he has given me in my life.
