Apparitions Architecture That Has Disappeared From Our Cities:

Apparitions T. John Hughes, 2015-03-10 Apparitions is a photography project about buildings that have vanished from our cities Ghosted pictures of these structures are combined with current photos of their former locations in single images with informative text panels to outline the design aesthetics This unique aesthetic approach provides an engaging way of telling stories of change in our built environments exploring the a wonderful historical narrative that commemorates architecture in space and time a way to showcase the preservation of memory National in scope and including a variety of building types Apparitions comprises photographs from more than sixty cities across the United States American Architect and the Architectural Review ,1889 The Canadian City Roger Kemble, 1989-06-01 Architect and artist Roger Kemble has demonstrated his ideas of urban design with images from sixteen major Canadian cities among others He has walked measured and sketched their streets squares and places scanned their horizons probed the relationships between structures land and landscape with unprecedented energy More significantly he has reacted to the negative effect that all the busy business of urban development is having on our daily lives and he has had the courage to offer concrete remedial plans If as Kemble quoting Ruskin reminds us Architecture is the mother of the arts then time spent with his bold imaginative idiosyncratic view of the making and unmaking of cities drawn with passionate hindsight and compassionate foresight will be a moving and healing experience Through the beckoning text of The Canadian City and its 144 illustrations we will come to know the map of our own country and city as never before The long shadow cast by this knowledge will make us more aware travellers abroad too Principles of city living and city building will accompany us everywhere with an unsuspecting vividness There is only a short step from Roger Kemble's studio to the world Posthumous Images Chad Elias, 2018-09-07 For almost two decades of its history 1975-90 Lebanon was besieged by sectarian fighting foreign invasions and complicated proxy wars In Posthumous Images Chad Elias analyzes a generation of contemporary artists who have sought in different ways to interrogate the contested memory of those years of civil strife and political upheaval In their films photography architectural projects and multimedia performances these artists appropriate existing images to challenge divisive and violent political discourses They also create new images that make visible individuals and communities that have been effectively silenced rendered invisible or denied political representation As Elias demonstrates these practices serve to productively unsettle the distinctions between past and present the dead and the living official history and popular memory In Lebanon the field of contemporary art is shown to be critical to remembering the past and reimagining the future in a nation haunted by a violent and unresolved war Memories of Cities Jonathan Charley, 2016-04-22 Memories of Cities is a collection of essays that explore different ways of writing about the political and economic history of the built environment Drawing upon fiction and non fiction and illustrated by original photographs the essays employ a variety of narrative forms including memoirs letters and diary entries They take the reader on a journey to cities such as Glasgow Paris Moscow St

Petersburg and Marseille laying bare the contradictions of capitalist architectural and urban development whilst simultaneously revealing alternative visions of how buildings and cities might be produced and organised
