ABC's with Ted and Raymond Rhonda Patton, Chester McDaniel, 2015-05-22 Simple A to Z colorful cute books for preschoolers Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Satirical Films Wikipedia contributors, Mr. Carry On Morris Bright, Robert Ross, 2000 The Carry On films were the brainchild of Peter Rogers one of Britain's most admired and respected film producers This biography charts his career and his marriage to Betty Box the country's first female producer as well as documenting his 40 year partnership with director Gerald Thomas Focus On: 100 Most Popular 2010s Fantasy Films Wikipedia contributors, Jet, 1983 The ABC Movie of the Week Michael McKenna, 2013-08-22 On September 23 1969 five years after the first made for television movie premiered the ABC network broadcast Seven in Darkness This was the first television film for an anthology show called the Tuesday Night Movie of the Week Dedicating ninety minutes of weekly airtime to a still emerging genre was a financial risk for the third place network a risk that paid off The films were so successful that in 1972 the network debuted The Wednesday Movie of the Week Although most of the movies are no longer remembered a handful are still fondly recalled by viewers today including Duel Brian's Song and The Night Stalker The series also showcased pilot films for many eventual series such as Alias Smith and Jones The Six Million Dollar Man and Starsky and Hutch By the end of both shows regular runs in the spring of 1975 the network had broadcast more than 200 made for television films In The ABC Movie of the Week Big Movies for the Small Screen Michael McKenna examines this programming experiment that transformed the television landscape and became a staple of broadcast programming for several years The author looks at how the revolving films showcased the right mixture of romantic comedy action horror and social relevance to keep viewers interested week after week McKenna also chronicles how the ratings success led to imitations from the other networks resulting in a saturation of television movies As a cultural touchstone for millions who experienced the first run and syndicated versions of these films The ABC Movie of the Week is a worthy subject of study Featuring a complete filmography of all 240 movies with credit information and plot summaries a chronology and a list of pilots both failed and successful this volume will be valuable to television historians and scholars as well as to anyone interested in one of the great triumphs of network programming ABC's of AFV's Bob Aldrich, 1997-07 An overview of alternative fuel vehicles Includes chapters on regulations and requirements in the U S and California electric vehicles ethanol powered flexible fuel vehicles methanol powered flexible fuel vehicles natural gas powered vehicles propane LPG powered vehicles heavy duty vehicles and engines other alternative and clean fuels locations of alternative fuel facilities and the future of alternative fuel research Glossary and bibliography Tables contact lists and maps Year Book of Radio and Television, 1962 ABC Music Shows Volume One 1956 to 1959: Featuring Marty Wilde, Billy Fury, Cliff Richard and other artists on Jack Good's Oh Boy! Kevin Mulrennan, Following the success of my previous book which dealt with the pop show Thank Your Lucky Stars I have now decided to look at the music shows that appeared on A B C Weekend Television A B C

Weekend Television catered for viewers in the Midland and the North for thirteen glorious years from 1956 to 1968 The format will be similar to my previous work I shall take a chronological view with mini biographies where appropriate trivia interesting facts pictures and opinions both my own and from the contemporary public I shall not be looking at the previous company that was called A B C that morphed into A T V Television Nor will I be looking at music shows shown on A B C but not directly produced by them Therefore shows such as Sunday Night At The London Palladium and The Jack Jackson Show will not be featured as they merit a book in their own right If a weekend is absent from the diary it probably means A B C was concentrating on sports that particular weekend In the 60 s sports such as tennis rugby league and motor racing had a high profile Sadly most of the shows mentioned here are not preserved in the archives Television was considered an ephemeral pleasure back then Preserving a show was in many cases impossible or too expensive The powerful music unions discouraged repeat showings and many shows went out live and there was no need to record them Tapes were reused on a regular basis with shows being wiped forever within a few weeks of transmission Mercifully a handful of Oh Boys survive along with a snippet of Cliff in the anniversary show The ABC of ABC A George Formby section from a 1957 Top Of The Bill has popped up on YouTube A Chas McDevitt clip featuring a very young Jean Marsh opening a door may very well come from the same show British Pathe News have lovely features on Ship Canal Showboat showing the likes of Thora Hird rehearsing in Manchester in 1956 as well as a feature on Holiday Town Parade A few Sunday Breaks exist Sadly I could find nothing from programmes such as Bid For Fame Top Numbers After Hours and many more great shows Writing this book really struck me how viewing habits have changed over the decades Television was on just two channels Daytime shows were rare and television ended before midnight Televisions were expensive Shows tended to be on at exactly the same time each week to build up audience figures But some things never change Even back then some people moaned at the quality of the shows and were fed up of seeing the same stars week in week out Hopefully you will gain more pleasure reading the book than those killjoys

Encyclopedia of Television Pilots Vincent Terrace, 2020-01-17 On November 27 1937 NBC presented TV s first pilot film Sherlock Holmes then called an experiment Thousands of pilot films both unaired and televised have been produced since This updated and restyled book contains 2 470 alphabetically arranged pilot films broadcast from 1937 to 2019 Entries contain the concept cast and character information credits producer writer director dates genre and network or cable affiliation In addition to a complete performer s index two appendices have been included one detailing the pilot films that led to a series and a second that lists the programs that were spun off from one series into another Never telecast pilot films can be found in the companion volume The Encyclopedia of Unaired Television Pilots 1945 2018 Both volumes are the most complete and detailed sources for such information a great deal of which is based on viewing the actual programs
