Beyond Reasonable Doubt and Probable Cause Historical Perspectives on the Anglo American Law of Evidence delves into the evolution of evidentiary doctrines within the Anglo American legal system focusing on their development from the early modern period to the twentieth century This book examines the historical and intellectual underpinnings of key concepts like beyond reasonable doubt and probable cause exploring their roles in shaping the criminal justice process across various stages from arrest to jury deliberation By engaging with both doctrinal writings and broader philosophical and religious influences the study highlights the interplay between evolving legal standards and cultural notions of truth and certainty The work also traces the migration of evidentiary principles between institutions such as the grand jury trial jury and pretrial hearings and examines how these concepts were influenced by Romano canon traditions The book is structured thematically addressing three major areas the interaction between legal and philosophical ideas of evidence and proof the transmission of evidentiary concepts across different procedural stages and the impact of Romano canon traditions on English law Individual chapters tackle topics such as the trial jury's reliance on beyond reasonable doubt the grand jury's evidentiary standards and the migration of probable cause across arrest search and pretrial procedures The analysis also revisits philosophical contributions to evidentiary concepts and explores the incorporation of circumstantial evidence and presumption into Anglo American legal thought Ultimately this study sheds light on how these legal doctrines have shaped and reflected the intellectual and institutional foundations of Anglo American legal culture This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991

A Dialogue Between Law and History Baosheng Zhang, Thomas Yunlong Man, Jing Lin, 2020-12-14 This book builds on the success of the First International Conference on Facts and Evidence A Dialogue between Law and Philosophy Shanghai China May 2016 which was co hosted by the Collaborative Innovation Center of Judicial Civilization CICJC and East China Normal University The Second International Conference on Facts and Evidence A Dialogue between Law and History was jointly organized by the CICJC the Institute of Evidence Law and Forensic Science ELFS at China University of Political Science and Law CUPL and Peking University School of Transnational Law STL in Shenzhen China on November 16 17 2019 Historians legal scholars and legal practitioners share the same interest in ascertaining the truth in their respective professional endeavors It is generally recognized that any historical study without truthful narration of historical events is fiction and that any judicial trial without accurate fact finding is a miscarriage of justice In both historical research and the judicial process practitioners are invariably called upon before making any arguments to prove the underlying facts using evidence regardless of how the concept is defined or employed in different academic or practical contexts Thus historians and legal professionals have respectively developed theories and methodological tools to inform and explain the process of gathering evidentiary proof When lawyers and judges reconsider the facts of cases questions of law are actually a subset of questions of fact and thus the legal interpretation process also involves questions of historical fact The book brings together more than twenty leading history and legal scholars from around the world to explore a range of issues concerning the role of facts as evidence in both disciplines As such the book is of enduring value to historians legal scholars and everyone interested in truth seeking
