Theology and California Fred Sanders, Jason S. Sexton, 2016-02-17 Exploring California as a theological place this book renders critical engagement with significant Californian religious and theological phenomena and the inherent theological impulses within major Californian cultural icons Harnessing conceptual tools inherent to theology through theological reflection assessment and critique the chapters in this volume begin to ascertain the significance of various empirical data and that no other qualitative methodological Californian study has done Many universities are picking up on California literature as a theme that highlights a place of hope wonder and cultural innovation but have neglected the significance of theological instincts flowing through the Californian dynamic Californians Fred Sanders and Jason Sexton assemble leading voices and specialists both from within and without California for engagement with California s influential culture including leading theologians and cultural critics such as Richard J Mouw Paul Louis Metzger and Fred Sanders alongside leading specialists in Film studies and cultural critique theological anthropology missiology sociology and history

Think Red Larry Stoess, 2021-09-27 Have you ever wondered what the church would look like if Christians began to take the words of Jesus seriously the words some Bibles print in red What if Jesus actually meant for us to do the things he said What if those who believe in Jesus really did value the things he valued Would the church look different Would your neighborhood stay the same In Think Red Larry Stoess takes a close look at the values the vision and the mission of Jesus and then holds up a mirror for us to see if our communities look anything like Jesus If we dare look in the mirror we may be inspired to leave behind our obsession with consumer based religion and follow the way of Jesus Those who do will be set free to imagine creative and whimsical expressions of community

Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus character among God s people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit s transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God s people In other words God s people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel

Life Amid the Principalities Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2016-09-15 We are not contending against flesh and blood but against the principalities against the powers against the world rulers of this present darkness Eph 6 12 So Paul warns his Ephesian readers And yet Paul also says that these principalities and powers were created in and for Christ Col 1 16 and cannot separate us from the love of God Rom 8 38 What are the principalities and powers of our time How do we understand them as created fallen and disarmed How does the Christian today engage these powers These are the questions speakers and participants addressed at the 2014 Center for
