The Handbook of Dispute Resolution Michael L. Moffitt, Robert C. Bordone, 2005-08-16 This volume is an essential cutting edge reference for all practitioners students and teachers in the field of dispute resolution Each chapter was written specifically for this collection and has never before been published The contributors drawn from a wide range of academic disciplines contains many of the most prominent names in dispute resolution today including Frank E A Sander Carrie Menkel Meadow Bruce Patton Lawrence Susskind Ethan Katsh Deborah Kolb and Max Bazerman The Handbook of Dispute Resolution contains the most current thinking about dispute resolution It synthesizes more than thirty years of research into cogent practitioner focused chapters that assume no previous background in the field At the same time the book offers path breaking research and theory that will interest those who have been immersed in the study or practice of dispute resolution for years The Handbook also offers insights on how to understand disputants It explores how personality factors emotions concerns about identity relationship dynamics and perceptions contribute to the escalation of disputes The volume also explains some of the lessons available from viewing disputes through the lens of gender and cultural differences How Mediation Works Angela Cora Garcia,2019-08-15 An original study of the language of mediation which uses excerpts from real mediation sessions to illustrate how mediation works and how mediators can best help disputants make claims present evidence and propose solutions It will interest researchers and students of sociolinguistics conversation analysis and the sociology of law Conflict Resolution for the Helping Professions Allan Barsky,2014-05-07 Barsky s hands on text provides the theory skills and exercises to prepare readers for an array of conflict situations It encourages developing professionals to see themselves as reflective practitioners in the roles of negotiators mediators advocates facilitators and peacebuilders Readers will learn how to analyze conflict situations and develop theory based strategies that can be used to intervene in an ethical and effective manner Examples and exercises demonstrate how to apply conflict resolution skills when working with individuals families groups organizations and diverse communities Conflict Resolution for the Helping Professions is the only current conflict resolution textbook designed specifically for social work psychology criminal justice counseling and related professions Losing Twice Emily M. Calhoun,2011-04-06 In Losing Twice Emily Calhoun draws upon conflict resolution theory political theory and Habermasian discourse theory to argue that in rights cases the Court must work harder to avoid inflicting unnecessary harm on Constitutional losers But for this to happen Calhoun contends the role of judges needs to be reconceptualized She contends that the Court should not perceive itself simply as an adversarial forum but also as a transactional one where losers are not simply losers but participants in a process capable of addressing and ameliorating the effects that come with loss Filled with lucid discussions of well known cases Losing Twice offers an intellectually powerful argument for transforming the decision making process in Constitutional rights disputes Conflict and Sustainability in a Changing Environment Gwendolyn Smith,Elena P. Bastidas,2017-01-02 Using a case study of the Trio indigenous peoples in Suriname Conflict and Sustainability in a Changing Environment presents an inside view of a community facing climate change and on the path toward sustainable development Smith and Bastidas take the reader beyond an examination of examples from the field of practice and into a thorough case study on climate change With more than ten years of field experience Smith and Bastidas present an in depth bottom up analysis of sustainable development including tools for practitioners insight for academics and advice to policymakers The Blackwell Handbook of Mediation Margaret S. Herrman,2009-02-09 This handbook invites readers who are interested in mediation negotiation and conflict resolution to share the perspectives of experts in the field Contributors include scholars mediators trainers and negotiators all of whom are passionate about their work Emphasises both internal and external factors as important sources of influence when negotiating conflicts Explores the cultural and institutional frameworks that have shaped intervention processes Considers what techniques might work when how and why Demonstrates the sophistication of contemporary studies of mediation negotiation and conflict resolution Re-Centering Culture and Knowledge in Conflict Resolution Practice Mary Adams Trujillo, S. Y. Bowland, Linda James Myers, Phillip M. Richards, Beth Roy, 2022-09-01 The field of conflict resolution centers on relationships and ways of approaching methods for problem solving. These relationships and approaches vary deeply depending on the individual, society, and background, proving that cultural perspective is fundamental to any dispute intervention. Re-Centering Culture and Knowledge in Conflict Resolution Practice is a collection of original essays by scholars and practitioners of conflict resolution and others working in marginalized communities. The volume offers a sampling of the cultural voices essential to effective practice yet not commonly heard in the discourse of conflict resolution. The authors explore the role of culture, race, and oppression in resolving disputes. Drawing on firsthand experience and sound research, the authors address such issues as culturally sensitive mediation practices, the diversity of perspectives in conflict resolution literature, and power dynamics. The first anthology of its kind, this book combines personal narratives with formal scholarship. By melding these varied approaches, the authors seek to inspire activism for social justice in today's multicultural society.
