Activating Gods Power Eddie Transformed:

The Transforming Fire of Divine Love John H. Armstrong, 2025-03-01 Most Bible readers know God is love 1 John 4 8 16 And most have heard the words of John 3 16 God so loved the world perhaps the best known verse in the entire Bible But few readers realize that these are perhaps the most daring verses in all the Scripture Why They tell us who God is and why we can trust him Yet very few Christians realize how much of what they believe about the nature of God is rooted in ideas foreign to divine love How did this happen What can be done to change how we can relate to the God who is perfect and inexhaustible love John Armstrong shares a deeply personal story of his long slow journey to know and experience God as a compassionate and loving Father As a pastor trained in evangelical theology he came to know and experience the teaching of the whole church about God thus the story he tells will inform how you can know the God who is amazing love This readable primer will help you develop a doctrine that can free you from guilt fear and many misconceptions we have about God You will see that what you believe about God will truly affect everything else you believe God's Transforming Love Lloyd John Ogilvie, Ed Stewart, 1988 UNSHAKABLE BELIEFS Edward D. Transforming Spirituality F. LeRon Shults, Steven J. Sandage, 2006-06-01 The twenty-first century has given rise to a growing interest in the intersection of science, religion, and spirituality. Few books address these issues from multiple perspectives and theories. To fill this void, F. LeRon Shults and Steven Sandage, coauthors of The Faces of Forgiveness (winner of the Narramore Award from the Christian Association for Psychological Studies), continue their interdisciplinary dialogue in their latest work, Transforming Spirituality. In this book, Shults and Sandage address the subject of spiritual transformation through the lenses of psychology and theology. In addition to college and seminary students, Transforming Spirituality will appeal to readers interested in Christian spirituality. What is more, it provides helpful insights for counselors, psychologists, and others who work in the mental health field.

Death as Transformation Dr. Henry L. Novello, 2013-06-28 A key tenet of Christian faith is that the crucifixion of Jesus Christ is a unique death by which the powers of death in the world have been conquered, so that Christian life in the Spirit is marked by the promise and hope of new life already anticipated in the community of baptized believers. Notwithstanding this basic tenet regarding the Christian life as a participation in the redemptive death of Jesus Christ, theology in the past as well as much contemporary theology tends to assign no salvific significance to the event of our own death, focusing instead on death in negative terms as the wages of sin. This work is a significant retort to theological neglect, both Catholic and Protestant, of the positive and transformative aspect of our death when conceived as a dying into the redemptive death of Jesus Christ. The development of Henry L. Novello's proposed theology of death takes place in conversation with the pre-eminent contemporary contributors to this field of theological inquiry. By offering comprehensive critiques of Karl Rahner, Hans Urs von Balthasar, Karl Barth, Eberhard Jüngel, and Jürgen Moltmann, Novello painstakingly pieces together a positive construal of death as salvific and transformative. What is especially distinctive about Novello's work is that he develops the idea of death as a sharing in the admirable exchange of natures in the person of Jesus Christ, from which emerges his theory of resurrection at death for all. The reach of the work is extended by exploring some pastoral and liturgical implications of a theology of death conceived as the privileged moment for the actualization of God's grace in Jesus Christ and thus being created anew in the power of the Spirit.

The Holy Spirit as Person and Power Rob Yule, 2020-01-10 In just over one hundred years, the Pentecostal charismatic movement has transformed world Christianity. Noted for their rediscovery of spiritual gifts and commitment to world evangelization, 700 million Pentecostals and charismatics now account for more than 27 percent of the global Christian movement. The Pentecostal charismatic movement has been more noted for its activism than for theological reflection. But this may be changing. The Holy Spirit as Person and Power challenges traditional theology to take account of what has been disclosed in the dynamism and variety of charismatic experience. The author is a theologically trained practitioner impacted in midlife by a transforming experience of the Holy Spirit He has been a hands on leader in the renewal movement Now in his later years he reflects on the meaning of the grace imparted to the church by the renewing activity of God s Spirit This is not the work of an enthusiast claiming a new revelation Rather the author draws attention to many nuances in the Bible s description of the Spirit that have been overlooked in traditional pneumatology By relating these insights to Orthodox Catholic Protestant and evangelical theology he has produced a book with ecumenical implications for all branches of world Christianity
