Active Learning for Ones Debby Cryer, 1987 This publication has over 300 activities for children 12-24 months old. The activities are easy to read and do with one child or a small group.

Active Learning and Student Engagement Mick Healey, Eric Pawson, Michael Solem, 2013-09-13 This book examines significant issues in geography teaching and learning from the perspectives of an international network of academic geographers and postgraduate students. Drawing on classroom experiences and research in a wide variety of educational settings, the authors describe conceptually interesting and practical applications for enhancing student learning through inquiry, problem-based learning, field study, online collaboration, and other highly engaging forms of pedagogy. Other articles focus on approaches for improving the experiences of distance learners, strategies for enhancing the employability of geography students, and preparing students to engage with ethical issues in the discipline. An international audience of educators will find much of value through the use of comparative examples, literature reviews encompassing research in multiple national contexts, and an underlying awareness of the diversity of practices in higher education internationally. This book is a collection of articles previously published in two special issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education.

40 Active Learning Strategies for the Inclusive Classroom, Grades K-5 Linda Schwartz Green, Diane Casale-Giannola, 2011-01-24 An excellent tool to help teachers help students, this book would be particularly useful within a professional learning community or in a mentoring setting. Jim Hoogheem, Retired Principal, Fernbrook Elementary School, Maple Grove, MN. This book got me excited to teach in an inclusive setting.
