Ape Reaktion S Animal:

Tourism and Animal Ethics David A. Fennell, 2024-02-26 This timely book provides a critical account of the role that animals play in the tourism industry representing an extension of the sustainability imperative and environmental theory Written by a leading academic and author this volume explores the rich history of animal ethics research both inside and outside of tourism studies for the purpose of providing greater theoretical empirical conceptual and practical guidance It examines historical and current practices of the use of animals in the tourism industry from both in situ to ex situ consumption and production perspectives identifying a range of ethical issues associated with such use This second edition has been updated to reflect contemporary research and thinking around animal welfare hunting and consumption with new chapters on animals as food and policy at the national and international levels New case studies have been integrated throughout Offering an interdisciplinary overview of the moral issues related to the use of animals in tourism through cutting edge research this book is essential reading for students academics and researchers interested in tourism ethics sustainable tourism and wildlife tourism

Animals, Empathy, and Anthropomorphism Carlo Salzani, 2025-05-05 This open access book explores the role of imagination in animal ethics and its constitutive links to empathy sympathy and anthropomorphism The book argues for the constitutive role of imagination in ethical deliberation but acknowledges that there exist important limits to its use However limit is here understood not merely negatively as restriction and insufficiency but rather positively as condition of possibility so what the book explores and analyses are the conditions for a positive and fruitful use of the imagination in ethics The book uses as a frame the questions and issues raised in J M Coetzee's The Lives of Animals to explore some central and salient themes

L'Humain et l'Animal dans la France médiévale (XIIe-XVe s.) Irène Fabry-Tehranchi, Anna Russakoff, 2014-08-01 Ce recueil explore les relations mouvantes entre hommes et animaux aussi bien réels que fantastiques dans la France médiévale dans une perspective interdisciplinaire Les auteurs examinent la façon dont le rapport humain animal a été imaginé défini et remodelé dans la pensée la culture et la production artistique du Moyen Âge La distinction entre l'humain et l'animal fondamentale dans le texte biblique et la philosophie antique a été remise en question au cours du XIIe siècle Ce phénomène ne transparaît dans la terminologie utilisée pour désigner les animaux dans leur représentation dans les arts et la littérature et dans l'évolution de textes fondamentaux comme le Physiologus ou les bestiaires Les frontières entre le monde humain et animal fondées sur des critères comme la maîtrise du langage la capacité ou la responsabilité morale ont profondément évolué et ont été remises en cause entre le XIIe et le XVe siècle This is the first volume that explores the changing relationships between humans and animals both real and fantastic in medieval France from a completely interdisciplinary perspective The authors examine the way the human animal rapport was imagined defined and remodeled in thought culture and artistic production The distinction between human and animal fundamental in the Bible and in Ancient philosophy was challenged throughout the course of the 12th century This phenomenon can be traced in changes in the terminology used to designate animals in their representations in the arts and literature and in the reworking of fundamental texts such as the Physiologus and the bestiaries The borders between the human and the animal world based on criteria such as linguistic ability the capacity to laugh and even legal responsibility evolved and were fundamentally reconsidered between the 12th and the 15th century Ir ne Fabry Tehranchi est enseignante en langue et litt rature fran aise et m di vale l universit de Reading Elle est l auteur de Texte et images des manuscrits du Merlin et de la Suite Vulgate XIIIe s Brepols 2014 Anna Russakoff est enseignante et co directrice du d partement d Histoire de l Art The American University Paris Elle est co ditrice et contributrice de l ouvrage Jean Pucelle Innovation and Collaboration in Manuscript Painting Brepols 2013

Humans and Animals Julie Urbanik,Connie L. Johnston,2017-01-26 An engaging and at times sobering look at the coexistence of humans and animals in the 21st century and how their sometimes disparate needs affect environments politics economies and culture worldwide There is an urgent need to understand human animal interactions and relations as we become increasingly aware of our devastating impact on the natural resources needed for the survival of all animal species This timely reference explores such topics as climate change and biodiversity the impact of animal domestication and industrial farming on local and global ecosystems and the impact of human consumption of wild species for food entertainment medicine and social status This volume also explores the role of pets in our lives advocacy movements on behalf of animals and the role of animals in art and media culture Authors Julie Urbanik and Connie L Johnston introduce the concept of animal geography present different aspects of human animal relationships worldwide and highlight the importance of examining these interconnections Alphabetical entries illustrate key relationships concepts practices and animal species The book concludes with a comprehensive appendix of select excerpts from key primary source documents relating to animals and a glossary

The Wild Within Andrew Brogan,2018-02-22 Established in 1836 the Bristol Zoo is the world s oldest surviving zoo outside of a capital city and has frequently been at the vanguard of zoo innovation In The Wild Within Andrew Flack uses the experiences of the Bristol Zoo to explore the complex and ever changing relationship between human and beast which in many cases has altered radically over time Flack recounts a history in which categories and identities combined converged and came into conflict as the animals at Bristol proved to be extremely adaptive He also reveals aspects of the human animal bond however that have remained remarkably consistent not only throughout the zoo s existence but for centuries including the ways in which even the captive animals with the most distinct qualities and characteristics are misunderstood when viewed through an anthropocentric lens Flack strips back the layers of the human animal relationship from those rooted in objectification and homogenization to those rooted in the recognition of consciousness and individual experience The multifaceted beasts and protean people in The Wild Within challenge a host of assumptions both within and outside the zoo about what it means to be human or animal in the modern world

Critical Perspectives on Veganism Jodey Castricano,Rasmus R. Simonsen,2016-09-13 This book examines the ethics politics and aesthetics of veganism in contemporary culture and thought Traditionally a lifestyle located on the margins of western culture veganism has now been propelled into the mainstream and as agribusiness grows animal issues are inextricably linked to environmental impact as well as to existing ethical concerns This collection connects veganism to a range of topics including gender sexuality race the law and popular culture It explores how something as basic as one's food choices continue to impact on the cultural political and philosophical discourse of the modern day and asks whether the normalization of veganism strengthens or detracts from the radical impetus of its politics With a Foreword by Melanie Joy and Jens Tuidor this book analyzes the mounting prevalence of veganism as it appears in different cultural shifts and asks how veganism might be rethought and re practised in the twenty first century

The Routledge Companion to Animal-Human History Hilda Kean, Philip Howell, 2018-09-03 The Routledge Companion to Animal Human History provides an up to date guide for the historian working within the growing field of animal human history Giving a sense of the diversity and interdisciplinary nature of the field cutting edge contributions explore the practices of and challenges posed by historical studies of animals and animal human relationships Divided into three parts the Companion takes both a theoretical and practical approach to a field that is emerging as a prominent area of study Animals and the Practice of History considers established practices of history such as political history public history and cultural memory and how animal human history can contribute to them Problems and Paradigms identifies key historiographical issues to the field with contributors considering the challenges posed by topics such as agency literature art and emotional attachment The final section Themes and Provocations looks at larger themes within the history of animal human relationships in more depth with contributions covering topics that include breeding war hunting and eating As it is increasingly recognised that nonhuman actors have contributed to the making of history The Routledge Companion to Animal Human History provides a timely and important contribution to the scholarship on animal human history and surrounding debates

Homeless Dogs and Melancholy Apes Laura S. Brown, 2017-01-31 In eighteenth century England the encounter between humans and other animals took a singular turn with the discovery of the great apes and the rise of bourgeois pet keeping These historical changes created a new cultural and intellectual context for the understanding and representation of animal kind and the nonhuman animal has thus played a significant role in imaginative literature from that period to the present day In Homeless Dogs and Melancholy Apes Laura Brown shows how the literary works of the eighteenth century use animal kind to bring abstract philosophical ontological and metaphysical questions into the realm of everyday experience affording a uniquely flexible perspective on difference hierarchy intimacy diversity and transcendence Writers of this first age of the rise of the animal in the modern literary imagination used their nonhuman characters from the lapdogs of Alexander Pope and his contemporaries to the ill mannered monkey of Frances Burney's Evelina or the ape like Yahoos of Jonathan Swift to explore questions of human identity and self definition human love and the experience of intimacy and human diversity and the boundaries of convention Later literary works continued to use imaginary animals to question human conventions of form and thought Brown pursues this engagement with animal kind into the nineteenth century through works by Mary Shelley Charles Dickens and Elizabeth Barrett Browning and into the twentieth with a concluding account of Paul Auster's dog novel Timbuktu Auster's work suggests that today as in the eighteenth century imagining other animals opens up a potential for dissonance that creates distinctive opportunities for human creativity

Animals and Society Margo DeMello, 2012-08-21 Considering that much of human society is structured through its interaction with non human animals and since human society relies heavily on the exploitation of animals to serve human needs human animal studies has become a rapidly expanding field of research featuring a number of distinct positions perspectives and theories that require nuanced explanation and contextualization The first book to provide a full overview of human animal studies this volume focuses on the conceptual construction of animals in American culture and the way in which it reinforces and perpetuates hierarchical human relationships rooted in racism sexism and class privilege Margo DeMello considers interactions between humans and animals within the family the law the religious and political system and other major social institutions and she unpacks the different identities humans fashion for themselves and for others through animals Essays also cover speciesism and evolutionary continuities the role and preservation of animals in the wild the debate over zoos and the use of animals in sports domestication agricultural practices such as factory farming vivisection animal cruelty animal activism the representation of animals in literature and film and animal ethics Sidebars highlight contemporary controversies and issues with recommendations for additional reading educational films and related websites DeMello concludes with an analysis of major philosophical positions on human social policy and the future of human animal relations
