Asias New Multilateralism Cooperation Competition And The Search For Community:

Asia's New Multilateralism Michael J. Green, Bates Gill, 2009 Traditionally stability in Asia has relied on America's bilateral alliances with Japan Australia and the Republic of Korea Yet in recent years emergent and more active multilateral forums such as the Six Party Talks on North Korea and the East Asia Summit have taken precedence engendering both cooperation and competition while reflecting the local concerns of the region Some are concerned that this process is moving toward less inclusive bloc based talking shops and that the future direction and success of these arrangements along with their implications for global and regional security and prosperity remain unclear The fifteen contributors to this volume all leading scholars in the field provide national perspectives on regional institutional architecture and their functional challenges They illuminate areas of cooperation that will move the region toward substantive collaboration convergence of norms and strengthened domestic institutions They also highlight the degree to which institution building in Asia a region composed of liberal democracies authoritarian regimes and anachronistic dictatorships has become an arena for competition among major powers and conflicting norms and assess the future shape of Asian security architecture

Changing Power Relations in Northeast Asia Marie Soderberg, 2011-03-07 This book analyses the Japanese South Korean relationship from various angles including politics security economics culture and immigration In a sense the two countries are natural partners Both are democratic societies they are economically strong and are the only two Asian countries that are members of the OECD Both have security treaties with the USA they share security concerns when it comes to the North Korean nuclear threat as well as the rise of China which at the same time has become the largest trading partner for both Japan and South Korea also share similar values customs cultures and languages All this would make it logical for them to have a strong cooperative bilateral relationship Yet this is still not the case The contributors to this book examine how the relationship is affected by the changing power relations in Northeast Asia and find a most complex situation Understanding how Japan and Korea interact is central for anyone that wants to understand the politics of East Asia This volume will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Asian politics as well as those interested in political science and peace and conflict resolution more generally Marie Soderberg is Professor and Director of the European Institute of Japanese Studies Sweden

The Long Game Rush Doshi, 2021 In The Long Game Rush Doshi demonstrates that China is in fact playing a long methodical game to replace America as a global hegemon Drawing from a rich base of Chinese primary sources including decades worth of party documents and memoirs by party leaders he traces the basic evolution of Chinese strategy showing how it evolved in response to changes in US policy and the US's position in the world order

The Struggle for Order Evelyn Goh, 2013-08-15 How has world order changed since the Cold War ended Do we live in an age of American empire or is global power shifting to the East with the rise of China Arguing that existing ideas about balance of power and power transition are inadequate this book gives an innovative reinterpretation of the changing nature of US power focused on the order transition in East Asia Hegemonic power is based on both coercion and consent and hegemony is crucially underpinned by shared norms and values Thus hegemons must constantly legitimize their unequal power to other states In periods of strategic change the most important political dynamics centre on this bargaining process conceived here as the negotiation of a social compact This book studies the re negotiation of this consensual compact between the U S China and other states in post Cold War East Asia It analyses institutional bargains to constrain and justify power attempts to re define the relationship between a regional community and the global economic order the evolution of great power authority in regional conflict management and the salience of competing justice claims in memory disputes It finds that U S hegemony has been established in East Asia after the Cold War mainly because of the complicity of key regional states But the new social compact also makes room for rising powers and satisfies smaller states insecurities The book controversially proposes that the East Asian order is multi tiered and hierarchical led by the U S but incorporating China Japan and other states in the layers below it

The Making of the Asia Pacific See Seng Tan, 2025-10-01 This illuminating volume critically surveys the power of narratives in shaping the discourse on the post Cold War Asia Pacific The author examines the purposes practices power relations and protagonists behind policy networks such as the Council for Security Cooperation in the Asia Pacific and the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council

Globalization and Development in East Asia Jan Nederveen Pieterse, Jongtae Kim, 2012-08-06 East Asia is widely regarded as the main winner in contemporary globalization unscathed by the economic crisis of 2008 with its leading new industrializing nations and emerging economies While 20th century globalization was mainly led by the West the 21st century is ushering in different dynamics The re emergence of Asia involves alternative visions of the world and different perspectives on globalization This volume seeks to address these dimensions turning to local reflexivities notably in South Korea and China to explore the key debates in sociology and political economy within East Asia rather than from an outside view

The Theoretical and Practical Dimensions of Regionalism in East Asia Karolina Klecha-Tylec, 2016-11-29 This book provides a comprehensive overview of developments in East Asian regionalism combining qualitative evidence with empirical quantitative analysis It argues that two dominant processes have formed East Asian regionalism 1 regionalization and 2 inter regionalism Klecha Tylec examines the differences between traditional and new regionalisms as they apply to East Asia the differences between East Asian and European regionalism the role of the United States in shaping regional links and the evolution of the three key structures of ASEAN ASEAN 3 and Asia Summits The book is unique for examining together the network zonal and geospatial dimensions of relations in East Asia as they apply at micro regional sub regional macro regional trans regional and inter regional levels The book offers a detailed analysis of intra regional links and the hybrid relationships between micro regions and nation states

United States Engagement in the Asia Pacific: Perspectives from Asia Yoichiro Sato, See Seng Tan, 2015-07-15 This study brings together Asian and Asia based experts of international relations and U S foreign policy to present diverse Asian views about preferred modes of U S engagement in the region and compare their views with U S interests in the region a prerequisite exercise to truly multilateral regional security governance With the rise of Chinese power in absolute and relative terms over the next decades as a key driving factor of the international relations in the Asia Pacific the United States has announced its Rebalance to Asia previously referred as Pivot to Asia strategy Asian responses perceptions and even interpretations of the U S strategy have been diverse Misconceptions of the U S strategy can be attributed to the built in contradictions among its objectives deliberate ambiguities left by the architects of the strategy mismatch between the stated strategy and actual policy implementations during the last three years and subjective reading by the Asian countries through the lens of their own interests This book will illuminate the diversity of Asian responses and perceptions and analyze the underlying reasons of the diversity The overarching framework of analysis for this book is the very dilemma of alliances abandonment and entrapment which hedging aims at evading Abandonment fear is primarily of the junior partner of an alliance that its senior partner may not come to its aid in crisis Meanwhile entrapment fear works both ways The United States may drag its allies into its conflict against a third party but U S allies may also drag the United States into their regional conflicts in which the United States has no direct or significant stake The Asian choices of their strategic responses to the U S Rebalancing will be described and analyzed through the lens of the perceived balance between the abandonment and entrapment fears as well as other historical and domestic factors unique to each Asian country The reading of the U S strategy by Asian countries is a subjective matter and their interests likely influence their analysis and consequently strategies It is not the aim of this volume to establish well defined cause and effect chain between the U S strategy and Asian strategies but thick descriptions have enabled some chapter authors to identify reciprocal relations between the two While China s growth is the most important driver of the changing strategic landscape in the Asia Pacific and the new U S strategy the new U S strategy inevitably influence the Chinese strategy which in turn triggers a chain reaction of strategic revisions in Asian countries This book is essential reading for scholars in Asian politics U S foreign policy international relations as well as for policy makers

East and South-East Asia Andrew T. H. Tan, 2013-07-03 The economic growth of East and South East Asia in the context of the global financial crisis has strengthened the view that this region is emerging in the 21st century as the most economically vibrant region in the world With some of the largest economies and generally high economic growth rates compared to the rest of the world it is unsurprising that East and South East Asia has become the subject of global interest East Asia s rise inevitably focuses attention on the issue of China s emergence as a regional and global power Such a prospect challenges the current status quo in which the region is dominated by the USA and its regional allies and issues in Sino US strategic relations have raised global awareness of the need to understand this pivotal region better In addition the Taiwan issue continues to evoke nationalist sentiments in China and North Korea continues to threaten regional stability Non traditional or alternative security issues are also of major importance in the region including natural disasters and epidemics as well as challenges relating to human rights and governance transnational crime demographic issues economics and trade and regionalism This Handbook aims to offer an insight into these issues The volume is divided into two main sections The first International Relations and Security Perspectives will focus on the international relations of the region paying special attention to the key state players The chapter contributions will examine the security perspectives and foreign and defence policies of these states as well as key bilateral relationships The second section will examine key Regional Non traditional Security Issues including globalization transnational health challenges population growth and the environment

Global Security Watch—Japan Andrew Lee Oros,Yuki Tatsumi,2010-09-02 This book offers a comprehensive overview of Japan s national security institutions and policy today including a detailed discussion of Japan s regional security environment and its alliance with the United States in the context of the Democratic Party of Japan s rise to power in August 2009 2010 marks the 50th anniversary of the revision of the U S Japan Security Treaty making Japan one of the United States s longest and most important military allies Over 40 000 US troops are based in Japan as is the only U S aircraft carrier based outside the United States the USS George Washington Japan possesses one of the world s largest economies and strongest military forces and as a result its national security policies and institutions are highly significant not just to America but to the rest of the global community as well This book provides an overview of Japan s transformation into one of the world s most capable military powers over the past 150 years Particular attention is paid to developments in the past decade such as the 2009 change in the controlling political party and Japan s responses to new global security threats
