Experiencing Sound Lawrence Kramer, 2024-09-03 From the winds of Mars to a baby's first laugh a prolific philosopher composer reflects on the profound imperative of sound in everyday life Experiencing Sound presents its subject as fundamental to all experience sensation perception and understanding Lawrence Kramer turns on its head the widespread notion that vision takes pride of place among the senses and demonstrates how paying attention to sound can transform how we make meaning out of experience Through a series of brief lyrical forays Kramer shows that sound whether heard or unheard is the object of a primary need and an essential component in the sensation of being alive and the perception of time It is something that we may suffer or be made to suffer as well as enjoy Like its predecessor The Hum of the World this book ranges widely across music philosophy literature art media and history from classical antiquity to the present as it invites us to experience sound anew Aging Heroes Norma Jones, Bob Batchelor, 2015-05-06 Despite the increasing number and variety of older characters appearing in film television comics and other popular culture much of the understanding of these figures has been limited to outdated stereotypes of aging These include depictions of frailty resistance to modern life and mortality More importantly these stereotypes influence the daily lives of aging adults as well as how younger generations perceive and interact with older individuals In light of our graying population and the growing diversity of portrayals of older characters in popular culture it is important to examine how we understand aging In Aging Heroes Growing Old in Popular Culture Norma Jones and Bob Batchelor present a collection of essays that address the increasing presence of characters that simultaneously manifest and challenge the accepted stereotypes of aging The contributors to this volume explore representations in television programs comic books theater and other forms of media The chapters include examinations of aging male and female actors who take on leading roles in such movies as Gran Torino Grudge Match Escape Plan Space Cowboys Taken and The Big Lebowski as well as The Expendables Red and X Men franchises Other chapters address perceptions of masculinity sexuality gender and race as manifested by such cultural icons as Superman Wonder Woman Danny Trejo Helen Mirren Betty White Liberace and Tyler Perry's Madea With multi disciplinary and accessible essays that encompass the expanding spectrum of aging and related stereotypes this book offers a broader range of new ways to understand perceive and think about aging Aging Heroes will be of interest to scholars of film television gender studies women's studies sociology aging studies and media studies as well as to general readers
