And Then Things Fall Apart

Arlaina Tibensky

And Then Things Fall Apart:

And Then Things Fall Apart Arlaina Tibensky, 2011-07-26 Keek's life was totally perfect. Keek and her boyfriend just had their Worst Fight Ever, her best friend heinously betrayed her, her parents are divorcing and her mom's across the country caring for her newborn cousin who may or may not make it home from the hospital. To top it all off, Keek's got the plague. Well, the chicken pox. Now she's holed up at her grandmother's technologically barren house until further notice. Not quite the summer vacation Keek had in mind. With only an old typewriter and Sylvia Plath's The Bell Jar for solace and guidance, Keek's alone with her swirling thoughts. But one thing's clear through her feverish haze: she's got to figure out why things went wrong so she can put them right. Chinua Achebe and the Igbo-African World Chima J. Korieh, Ijeoma C.

Nwajiaku, 2022-04-12 Chinua Achebe and the Igbo African World Between Fiction, Fact and Historical Representation explores Chinua Achebe's literary works and how they communicated the Igbo African world to readers. Engaging in the politics of representation, Achebe sought to demystify deterministic views of race and cultural ethnocentrism. While his books and commentaries have been very influential in shaping a unique and multifaceted view of the African world, some scholars have challenged Achebe's representations of historical reality. Through in-depth analyses of his writing, contributors examine the interpretations Achebe imposed on African culture and history in his texts. The chapters cover Achebe's engagement with critical issues like historical representation, gender relations, and indigenous political institutions in a changing society. Throughout, contributors present new ways for understanding Achebe's literary works and show how his work draws from African historical reality and identity while challenging Western epistemological hegemony. Approaches to the African Novel Charles E. Nnolim, 2010 This Third Edition of Approaches to the African Novel is a child of necessity. Because of the unfortunate death of the publisher of Saros International who issued the First Edition and high demand, this third enlarged edition has become imperative. Three new essays, all previously published, are added: two expectedly on Achebe, the father of the African novel, and one on Mongp Beti's Mission to Kala which was partially anthologised in Contemporary Literary Criticism Volume 27, 1984. Achebe's Things Fall Apart as an Igbo national epic has evoked a spate of reactions from critics of African literature, especially the troika Chinweizu et al in Toward the Decolonization of African Literature. It was also anthologised in Modern Black Literature edited by S. Okechukwu Menu, 1971. The essay on Arrow of God, whose structure and meaning has been largely avoided by other critics, is included here for further airing. For gender balance, as the previous volume contained no essays on women writers, an essay on Flora Nwapa has been added. Since the novels discussed in this volume exclusively are on the African literature south of the Sahara, the last essay on Peter Abrahams comes in to round out this collection of essays with a study of a South African writer for geographical balance. Contemporary African

Literature and the Politics of Gender Florence Stratton, 2020-09-23 The influence of colonialism and race on the development of African literature has been the subject of a number of studies. The effect of patriarchy and gender, however,
