Biopsychology 9th Edition John Pinel:

Introduction to Biopsychology John P. J. Pinel, Steven J. Barnes, 2014 Pinel's textbook presents the fundamentals of the study of the biology of behaviour and makes the topics personally and socially relevant to the student. A key feature of Introduction to Biopsychology is its combination of biopsychological science and personal reader oriented discourse.

Nature's Pharmacopeia Dan Choffnes, 2016-08-09 This beautifully illustrated elegantly written textbook pairs the best research on the biochemical properties and physiological effects of medicinal plants with a fascinating history of their use throughout human civilization revealing the influence of nature's pharmacopeia on art war conquest and law. By chronicling the ways in which humans have cultivated plant species extracted their active chemical ingredients and investigated their effects on the body over time Nature's Pharmacopeia also builds an unparalleled portrait of these special herbs as they transitioned from wild flora and botanical curiosities to commodities and potent drugs. The book opens with an overview of the use of medicinal plants in the traditional practices and indigenous belief systems of people in the Americas Africa Asia and ancient Europe. It then connects medicinal plants to the growth of scientific medicine in the West. Subsequent chapters cover the regulation of drugs the use of powerful plant chemicals such as cocaine nicotine and caffeine in various medical settings and the application of biomedicine's intellectual frameworks to the manufacture of novel drugs from ancient treatments. Geared toward nonspecialists this text fosters a deep appreciation of the complex chemistry and cultural resonance of herbal medicine while suggesting how we may further tap the vast repositories of the world's herbal knowledge to create new pharmaceuticals.

Gender Linda Brannon, 2016-12-19 Gender Psychological Perspectives synthesizes the latest research on gender to help students think critically about the differences between research findings and stereotypes provoking them to examine and revise their own preconceptions. The text examines the behavioral biological and social context in which women and men express gendered behaviors. The text's unique pedagogical program helps students understand the portrayal of gender in the media and the application of gender research in the real world. Headlines from the news open each chapter to engage the reader. Gendered Voices present true personal accounts of people's lives. According to the Media boxes highlight gender related coverage in newspapers magazines books TV and movies while According to the Research boxes offer the latest scientifically based research to help students analyze the accuracy and fairness of gender images presented in the media. Additionally Considering Diversity sections emphasize the cross cultural perspective of gender. This text is intended for undergraduate or graduate courses on the psychology of gender psychology of sex psychology of women or men gender issues sex roles women in society and women's or men's studies. It is also applicable to sociology and anthropology courses on diversity. Seventh Edition Highlights 12 new headlines on topics ranging from gender and the Flynn effect to gender stereotyping that affects men. Coverage of gender issues in aging adults and transgendered individuals. Expanded coverage of diversity issues in the US and around the globe including the latest research from China.

Japan and Europe More tables figures and photos to provide summaries of text in an easy to absorb format End of chapter summaries and glossary Suggested readings for further exploration of chapter topics Companion website at www.routledge.com/cw/Brannon containing both instructor and student resources

Brain, Consciousness, and God Daniel A. Helminiak, 2015-07-16 Brain Consciousness and God is a constructive critique of neuroscientific research on human consciousness and religious experience An adequate epistemology a theory of knowledge is needed to address this topic but today there exists no consensus on what human knowing means especially regarding nonmaterial realities Daniel A Helminiak turns to twentieth century theologian and philosopher Bernard Lonergan's breakthrough analysis of human consciousness and its implications for epistemology and philosophy of science Lucidly summarizing Lonergan's key ideas Helminiak applies them to questions about science psychology and religion Along with Lonergan eminent theorists in consciousness studies and neuroscience get deserved detailed attention Helminiak demonstrates the reality of the immaterial mind and addressing the Cartesian mind body problem explains how body and mind could make up one being a person Human consciousness is presented not only as awareness of objects but also as self presence the self conscious experience of human subjectivity a spiritual reality Lonergan's analyses allow us to say exactly what spiritual means and it need have nothing to do with God
