Creatural Fictions David Herman, 2016-04-08 This volume

explores how twentieth and twenty first century literary texts engage with relationships between humans and other animals. Written by forward thinking early career scholars as well as established experts in the field the chapters discuss key texts in the emergent canon of animal narratives including Franz Kafka's animal stories Yann Martel's The Life of Pi Zakes Mda's The Whale Caller and others. The volume is divided into four main sections. Two period focused sections center on modernism and on late twentieth and twenty first century fiction while two further sections foreground the more general project of theory building in literary animal studies examining interconnections among concepts of species sexuality gender and genre. The volume also raises issues that extend beyond the academic community including ethical dimensions of human animal relationships and the problems of species loss and diminishing biodiversity. Animals in Irish Society Corey Lee Wrenn, 2021-07-01 The first exploration of vegan Irish epistemology one that can be traced along its history of animism agrarianism ascendancy adaptation and activism Irish vegan studies are poised for increasing relevance as climate change threatens the legitimacy and longevity of animal agriculture and widespread health problems related to animal product consumption disrupt long held nutritional ideologies. Already a top producer of greenhouse gas emissions in the European Union Ireland has committed to expanding animal agriculture despite impending crisis. The nexus of climate change public health and animal welfare present a challenge to the hegemony of the Irish state and neoliberal European governance. Efforts to resist animal rights and environmentalism highlight the struggle to sustain economic structures of inequality in a society caught between a colonialist past and a globalized future. Animals in Irish Society explores the vegan Irish epistemology one that can be traced along its history of animism agrarianism ascendancy adaptation and activism. From its zoomorphic pagan roots to its legacy of vegetarianism Ireland has been more receptive to the interests of other animals than is currently acknowledged. More than a land of meat and potatoes Ireland is a relevant if overlooked contributor to Western vegan thought. The Nonhuman Narratives of Energy Josephine Taylor, 2025-07-15 This book brings the emerging field of petrocultures and energy humanities discourse into conversation with the field of animal studies. Taylor examines how fossil fuels have frequently been described as the lifeblood of capitalist modernity making petroleum appear as something intrinsic to human life. Through examining works such as Herman Melville's Moby Dick Nnedi Okorafor's Lagoon and Michel Faber's Under the Skin this book highlights the commodification of nonhuman life in the history of energy and paradoxically how these nonhuman actors have been unacknowledged and silenced through time. Representing the Modern Animal in Culture Ziba Rashidian, 2014-10-02 Examining a wide range of works from Gulliver's Travels to The Hunger Games Representing the Modern Animal in Culture employs key theoretical apparatuses of Animal Studies to literary texts. Contributors address the multifarious modes of animal representation and the range of human animal interactions that have emerged in the past 300 years. The Routledge Companion to Twenty-First-Century Irish Writing Anne Fogarty, Eugene O'Brien, 2024-12-20 This Companion brings together leading scholars in the field of Irish studies to explore
