

The Crucible: Act One – The opening scene (Reverend Parris questions Abigail)

Key Action:

Betty is 'unconscious' in bed.
Parris questions Abigail after he catches her and the girls dancing – he worries about his reputation.
She denies the accusations at first, but gets heated after he mentions the Proctors & defends her name.
The scene is stalled by entrance of the Putnams.

Key Quotations:

Parris: "There is a faction that is sworn to drive me from my pulpit."

Abigail: "(with an edge of resentment) There be no blush about my name."

Abigail: "A bitter woman, a lying, cold, sniveling woman."

Dramatic methods:

Stage directions: Show Abigail's nature changes: she loses control "ill-concealed resentment."

Punctuation: Parris – question marks, Abigail – exclamation marks.

Symbols: black/white (bad/good) pulpit (religion)

Entrances/Exits: Tituba's exit allowed their frank discussion but the Putnams' entrance stopped it.

Audience Reactions:

Abigail's reaction to Elizabeth foreshadows our later knowledge of the affair with John Proctor.
We gather that they are both more concerned with their reputations than the truth.
