Alawis Syria Politics Conflicts Societies:

Armed Organizations and Political Elites in Civil Wars Erwin van Veen, 2024-06-03 This book analyses under what conditions and with what developmental effects armed organizations shift their coercive profile during civil wars with a focus on the recent conflicts in Syria and Iraq The work begins with an operationalisation of the term political settlement focusing on how power is organized in fragile and conflict affected countries and then uses this operationalization to analyse the political settlements of contemporary Syria and Iraq including their breakdown and transformation during recent civil wars of 2011 today in Syria and 2014 17 in Iraq It subsequently examines why and how elite factions have used armed organizations in times of conflict This approach links an understanding of the broad evolution of power relations at the national level with the specific effects of the use of armed organizations on such relations It argues for a shift from assigning fixed labels to armed organizations during civil wars to studying their coercive profile in a dynamic fashion i e how armed organizations behave in terms of their use of threats and coercive force The book introduces five profiles of coercive behaviour that demonstrate how the same organization can behave very differently at various points in time One of these the hybrid coercive profile fills a gap in the existing civil war typology of organized armed violence by opening up the possibility of elite factions deliberately combining collaborative and competitive modes of behaviour As an evidence base the book provides in depth analysis of the origins evolution and operations of four armed organizations that have acted under a hybrid coercive profile during the Syrian and Iraqi civil wars the Syrian Kurdish People s Defence Forces the Eagles of the Whirlwind of the Syrian Social Nationalist Party the Iraqi Kurdish Peshmerga and the Badr Organization By connecting the concepts of political settlement and civil war and applying them to specific armed organizations operating in Syria and Iraq the book offers new insights into this nexus This book will be of much interest to students of civil wars conflict studies Middle Eastern Studies and International Relations

Today the community members are scattered over many different countries around the world The first Alawis came to Germany as Gastarbeiter guest workers in the 1960s following bilateral labour agreements between Turkey and Germany The present book explores the multifaceted experiences of Alawiness during the post migration period in Germany The book demonstrates the pervasiveness of the practice of secrecy in the various spheres of Alawi migrant life in Germany Throughout this book it becomes evident that living at the nexus of being an Alawi and a migrant generates a set of experiences that are shaped by the accelerated sociocultural political economic and technological developments in Germany but also in the countries of origin The focus of this book is on identification practices the practices of secrecy the dynamics of interethnic social relations and the religious practices of Turkish Alawi men and women in present day Germany The book traces in particular the stories of the new generations of Alawis whose experiences have largely remained ignored
