Creative Ageing Cities Keng Hua Chong, Mihye Cho, 2018-01-29 Ageing population and rapid urbanisation are the two major demographic shifts in today's world Architectural designs and urban policies have to deal with issues of an ever larger elderly population living in the cities especially in old urban neighbourhoods while also taking into consideration the evolving lifestyles and wellbeing of the diverse elderly demographic Being able to continue living in these existing urban neighbourhoods would thus require necessary interventions both to adapt the changing needs of the ageing population and to improve the deteriorating environment for better liveability Creative Ageing Cities discusses the participation and contribution of the ageing population as a positive and creative force towards urban design and place making particularly in high density urban contexts as observed in a collection of empirical cases found in rapidly ageing Asian cities This book is the first to bring together multidisciplinary scholastic research on ageing and urban issues from across top six ageing cities in Asia Singapore Seoul Tokyo Taipei Hong Kong and Shanghai Through these case studies this book gives a good overview of diverse challenges and opportunities in the various Asian urban contexts and offers a new perspective of an ageing and urban design framework that emphasises multi stakeholder collaboration inter generational relations and the collective wisdom of older people as a source of creativity

Designing for the Third Age Lorraine Farrelly, 2014-04-28 Highlights how architecture needs to rise to the challenge of a demographic revolution As people sixty five and older constitute an ever increasingly proportion of population in most industrialized nations the design of housing and other built provisions needs to be rethought in order to accommodate this ever expanding ageing population How can far reaching architectural solutions play a key part by creating sustainable cities for the changing profile of the population reducing models of dependency for care and transport while creating opportunities for recreation leisure and work This issue reflects on the population challenges facing Europe Australia North America and Asia offering innovative responses to these problems on a practical and speculative level Addresses a major social issue for architects designers and students Includes contributions from Arup Global Foresight Innovation Baronness Greengross President of the International Longevity Centre UK Matthias Hollwich of
