Dalo: The Autobiography Anthony Daly, 2014-10-30 Anthony Daly was the most successful captain in the history of Clare hurling leading the county to two All Irelands and three Munster titles Regarded as an inspirational figure by his fellow players Daly's innate leadership and character prompted the Clare players just three years after he had finished his playing career to pursue him as manager at the age of just 34 During his three years in charge he took Clare to the cusp of two All Ireland finals agonisingly losing the 2005 and 2006 semi finals to the eventual winners Cork and Kilkenny It was that kind of ambition and drive to succeed which attracted Dublin hurling to Daly Taking over the county in 2009 he led Dublin in 2011 to their first National League title in 72 years and in 2013 their first Leinster title in 52 years before he retired as manager in September 2014 Dalo takes us from the early days growing up in Clarecastle through the early part of his career with Clare the golden years and the extension into management punctuated with intense and revealing stories from the dressing room Interlaced with drama tragedy his love of other pursuits and his immense wit Anthony Daly's autobiography offers a compelling insight into a unique personality in modern Irish sport

Gooch - The Autobiography Colm Cooper, 2017-10-05 The greatest Gaelic footballer of all time Pat Spillane When Colm Cooper retired from inter county football in 2017 he left behind a remarkable legacy The holder of five All Ireland medals and eight All Stars he was Kerry's stand out forward for fifteen years From a family steeped in Gaelic football and a core member of the Dr Crokes team Colm was still in his teens when he first played for Kerry at senior level Overcoming struggles with injury and personal tragedy Cooper became one of the GAA's most recognizable and best loved figures at a time of tumultuous change in the game But the man known nationally as Gooch is also an intensely private figure who has never courted publicity and his personal story remains largely untold Now Gooch The Autobiography unlocks a previously unopened door tracing a compelling path through the life beyond the headlines This is the story of an ordinary man who became an extraordinary footballer

The White Heat - My Autobiography Tomás Ó Sé, 2015-10-16 I went as hard as I could for as long as I could When Tom's S retired from the Kerry senior panel in 2013 he did so as one of the longest serving players in intercountry history and one of its most prolific winners Tom's epitomised everything that Kerry football is all about His commitment determination and never say die attitude were plainly visible every time he took to the pitch He was a warrior and the best wing back that I have seen play the game amonn Fitzmaurice Kerry senior team manager But his drive and determination weren't forged in a vacuum they came from growing up in a family and place where Gaelic football was all that mattered For Tom's and his brothers Marc and Darragh football always came first each of them inspired by the larger than life personality of their uncle P id the talisman of Kerry s fabled team of the early 1980s In his memoir an account of his upbringing and time in the Championship cauldron competing alongside and against the sport s modern greats Tom s writes candidly about life as a member of Ireland s greatest sporting dynasty the victories and disappointments the rivals and roguery the clashes and confrontations not to mention the tremendous responsibility that came with donning the green and gold of Kerry Moving thrilling and frequently hilarious The White Heat is an exploration of what it means to eat sleep and bleed Gaelic Games At All Costs Davy Fitzgerald,Vincent Hogan,2018-10-26 Davy Fitzgerald is one of hurling s defining personalities A two time All Ireland winner as a player and once as a manager he has spent the past decade consolidating a reputation as one of the most innovative and dynamic coaches in the game first with Waterford then with his native Clare and most recently with Wexford For Davy however exacting in his standards and possessed of an unshakeable will to succeed victory has always come at a cost His playing and managerial honours though formidable are matched by a roll call of public controversies and private challenges every bit as lengthy and varied In this a raw and forthright account of his time in management Fitzgerald returns to the moments that have defined his career to date the tactics and gambles the breakthroughs and regrets the friendships and fallings out all the while measuring his judgement and the toll his single minded pursuit of excellence has taken on his health and those closest to him Packed with insights and anecdotes from his time on the sidelines At All Costs is a riveting account of a career spent walking the fine line that separates commitment from obsession and a must read for anyone who has ever wondered what it takes to compete and succeed at the highest level Pulse of the Nation Martin Breheny,Donal Keenan,2024-10-03 THE GAA book of 2024 covering 140 years of the agony and the ecstasy of Ireland s national games and their place at the heart of Irish life

Come What May Dónal Óg Cusack,2009-10-21 D nal g Cusack has been one of Ireland s leading hurlers for the past decade winning five Munster titles and three All Ireland medals with Cork and establishing himself as one of the game s most compelling and articulate figures In this book he tells the story of his life and extraordinary career This is not simply one of the best and most readable sports books to be published anywhere this year it is one of the best and most important books to be published in Ireland this year Sunday Tribune Certain to become a sports classic The Times Certainly the book of the year Irish Times The engine of the book is truthfulness raw compelling and uncomfortable Sunday Times
