The Economy of the Covenants, Between God and Man Herman Witsius, 1804 Happiness, God, and Man
Christoph Schönborn, 2010-01-01 All human beings want to be happy The longing for happiness does not have to be learned it is innate And it can hardly be unlearned for we never simply acquiesce in unhappiness Christian faith the Christian way of life and the imitation of Christ are understood to be signposts pointing the way to happiness Upon this depends their credibility and their attractiveness Cardinal Schönborn talks about man's happiness small and great about happiness as it is supposed to be and as it is discovered He explains what it means to say that all human beings are created for happiness His writings are centered on meditations about happiness and about love and friendship as well Yet the Archbishop of Vienna also discusses the essential questions of faith including reflections on the Name of God as seen in Scripture on dealing with the tragedies of modern times on consolation for the sorrowful and on the spiritual roots of western civilization In addition he discusses the importance of literature and how it addresses the deeper questions about life as demonstrated in his literary discussions of the works of C S Lewis Gertrud von Le Fort and William Shakespeare He shows how their works give witness to a happiness that overcomes all darkness through suffering trials and especially forgiveness Between Israel and God
Jacob Neusner, 2000 The Halakhah embodies the complete Jewish Law and contains commandments and guidelines for day to day living The original commandments given by God to the Jewish people were enhanced by rabbis to offer a detailed framework to guide the lives of all Jews In this complete all encompassing encyclopaedia of the Halakhah the various laws are classified in such a way that a systematic and coherent structure is obtained Each entry of the Halakhah is presented in a logical fashion Where applicable the original biblical wording is given extended with literal abstracts from the Torah Next problems and questions that may arise from that law are stated and any additional information given Finally each entry gives comprehensive explanations and recommendations as to how these laws are to be observed in daily life where to be and where not to be what to do and what not to do what to say and what not to say The Halakhah or standard Jewish Law combines the Mishnah about 200 CE the Tosefta about 300 CE and the two Talmuds about 400 600 CE for the Land of Israel and Babylon respectively Volumes I and II contain entries pertaining to the Jewish people in relationship to God Volume III explains how the Jewish people can restore and maintain their society in accordance with the Torah as it is explained by the rabbis In Volumes IV and V of this study we take up the life of the Jewish household in their encounter with God The Encyclopaedic account therefore moves from regulating relationships between Israel and God to establishing stable and equitable relationships among Israelites and finally to actually living the Halakhah What and Where is God? A Human Answer to the Deep Religious Cry of the Modern Soul Richard La Rue Swain, 2019-12-06 In What and Where is God A Human Answer to the Deep Religious Cry of the Modern Soul Richard La Rue Swain embarks on an intellectual and spiritual journey to address humanity's most pressing questions about the divine presence in an increasingly secular world Through a blend of philosophical inquiry and introspective reflection Swain offers a unique synthesis of contemporary religious thought analyzing the ways modernity has shaped our understanding of God The book is marked by its accessible literary style inviting readers to engage with profound theological concepts in a manner that resonates with the lived experiences and struggles of today's society Richard La Rue Swain a noted scholar in the fields of theology and philosophy draws upon a rich background of academic exploration and personal experience in articulating his views His diverse educational pursuits and deep engagement with both historical and modern religious practices inform his analysis enabling him to present a compelling argument that juxtaposes human longing with the quest for understanding divine existence Swain's insights emerge from decades of reflection on the intersection of faith and reason positioning him as a credible voice in contemporary theological discourse This book is highly recommended for readers seeking to reconcile their spiritual questions with the complexities of modern life Whether one identifies as religious spiritual or secular Swain's thoughtful examination offers a framework for understanding the divine in a way that is both relatable and profound Engage with this thoughtful work to deepen your own exploration of faith and existence

Understanding God's Love Ronald Greib, 1997 Ronald Grieb has undertaken a study of how God is misunderstood and misrepresented showing how false ideas of God neutralize His power and authority and lead people into the worship of false deities of their own manufacture

The Technology of Salvation and the Art of Geertgen tot Sint Jans John R. Decker, 2017-07-05 Investigating the complex interactions between devotional imagery and Church doctrine in the Low Countries during the fifteenth century this book demonstrates how the pictorial arts intersected with popular religious practice The author reconstructs the conceptual frameworks underlying the use and production of religious art in this period and provides a more nuanced understanding of the use of images in the process of soul formation This study delves into the complexity of the early modern system of personal justification and argues that religious images and objects were part of a larger Technology of Salvation In order to make these connections clearer the author analyzes selected works by Geertgen tot Sint Jans Little Gerard at St John's and shows how they functioned within their larger social and historical milieu
