The Jewish Idea and Its Enemies Hadley Cantril, Edward Alexander, 2019-08-21 This volume deals with the modern fate of the traditional conception of Jews as a covenanted people chosen to receive the Law whose ultimate purpose is contributing to the universal salvation of mankind The author shows how under the influence of liberalism rationalism relativism and other Enlightenment ideologies this idea was distorted denied inverted yet never entirely obliterated In his discussions of modern Jewish thinkers and writers and the ideological and political struggles of Zionism and the state of Israel against enemies from without and from within Alexander shows that the ancient idea of covenant is still alive today if only in the assumption that Jewish life can lead somewhere so long as Jews remember that it began somewhere Ranging from literary criticism and the history of ideas to journalism and politics the book is unified by a point of view unabashedly espousing the Jewish idea and challenging its enemies

How Did Lubitsch Do It? Joseph McBride, 2018-06-26 Orson Welles called Ernst Lubitsch 1892-1947 a giant whose talent and originality are stupefying Jean Renoir said He invented the modern Hollywood Celebrated for his distinct style and credited with inventing the classic genre of the Hollywood romantic comedy and helping to create the musical Lubitsch won the admiration of his fellow directors including Alfred Hitchcock and Billy Wilder whose office featured a sign on the wall asking How would Lubitsch do it Despite the high esteem in which Lubitsch is held as well as his unique status as a leading filmmaker in both Germany and the United States today he seldom receives the critical attention accorded other major directors of his era How Did Lubitsch Do It restores Lubitsch to his former stature in the world of cinema Joseph McBride analyzes Lubitsch's films in rich detail in the first in depth critical study to consider the full scope of his work and its evolution in both his native and adopted lands McBride explains the Lubitsch Touch and shows how the director challenged American attitudes toward romance and sex Expressed obliquely through sly innuendo Lubitsch's risqué sophisticated continental humor engaged the viewer's intelligence while circumventing the strictures of censorship in such masterworks as The Marriage Circle Trouble in Paradise Design for Living Ninotchka The Shop Around the Corner and To Be or Not to Be McBride's analysis of these films brings to life Lubitsch's wit and inventiveness and offers revealing insights into his working methods

Nazi Germany, Canadian Responses L. Ruth Klein, 2012-05-23 It has been thirty years since the publication of Irving Abella and Harold Troper's seminal work None is Too Many which documented the official barriers that kept Jewish immigrants and refugees out of Canada in the shadow of the Second World War The book won critical acclaim but a haunting question remained Why did Canada act as it did in the 1930s and 1940s Answering this question requires a deeper understanding of the attitudes ideas and information that circulated in Canadian society during this period How much did Canadians know at the time about the horrors unfolding against the Jews of Europe Where did their information come from And how did they respond on both public and institutional levels to the events that marked Hitler's march to power the 1935 Nuremberg Race Laws the 1936 Olympics Kristallnacht and the crisis of the MS St Louis The contributors to this collection scholars of international repute turn to the wider public sphere for answers to the media the world of literature the university campus the realm of international sport and networks of community activism Their findings reveal that the persecutions and atrocities taking place in Nazi Germany inspired a range of responses from ordinary Canadians from indifference to outrage to quiet acquiescence It is challenging to recreate the mindset of more than seventy years ago Yet this collection takes up that challenge digging deeper into archives records and testimonies that can offer fresh interpretations of this dark period The answer to the question why begins here Contributors include Doris Bergen Chancellor Rose and Ray Wolfe Chair in Holocaust Studies University of Toronto Richard Menkis Department of History University of British Columbia Harold Troper Department of Theory and Policy Studies in Education OISE University of Toronto Amanda Grzyb Faculty of Information and Media Studies University of Western Ontario Rebecca Margolis Centre for Canadian Jewish Studies University of Ottawa Michael Brown Department of Languages Literatures and Linguistics York University Norman Ravvin Institute for Canadian Jewish Studies Concordia University and James Walker Department of History University of Waterloo
