Planetary Modernisms Susan Stanford

Friedman,2015-08-18 Drawing on a vast archive of world history anthropology geography cultural theory postcolonial studies gender studies literature and art Susan Stanford Friedman recasts modernity as a networked circulating and recurrent phenomenon producing multiple aesthetic innovations across millennia Considering cosmopolitan as well as nomadic and oceanic worlds she radically revises the scope of modernist critique and opens the practice to more integrated study Friedman moves from large scale instances of pre 1500 modernities such as Tang Dynasty China and the Mongol Empire to small scale instances of modernisms including the poetry of Du Fu and Kabir and Abbasid ceramic art She maps the interconnected modernisms of the long twentieth century pairing Joseph Conrad with Tayeb Salih E M Forster with Arundhati Roy Virginia Woolf with the Tagores and Aim C saire with Theresa Hak Kyung Cha She reads postcolonial works from Sudan and India and engages with the idea of N gritude Rejecting the modernist concepts of marginality othering and major minor Friedman instead favors rupture mobility speed networks and divergence elevating the agencies and creative capacities of all cultures not only in the past and present but also in the century to come The Province of All Mankind

Stephen Buono,2025-07-15 The Province of All Mankind is the story of a powerful idea about the cosmos Born in the science fiction literature of the nineteenth century and maturing in the Age of Apollo this idea held that outer space should be preserved as a sanctuary from human strife free from weapons warfare and political rivalry If humanity could somehow leave violence behind as it moved into space perhaps peace would finally reign Bucking a half century of space race scholarship Stephen Buono argues that despite waging a totalizing Cold War the United States achieved stunning diplomatic successes that heralded the cosmos as a realm of peace and cooperation The early story of space politics is not primarily one of militarization but rather of political prescience and restraint The Province of All Mankind demonstrates that space became a unique domain of American foreign relations and international law and provides lessons for the Second Cold War unfolding over the horizon
