A Proven Strategy For Creating Great Art:

A Proven Strategy for Creating Great Art Dan McCaw, 2002 Dan McCaw is one of America's most respected artists and with this book he reveals his oil painting approach for creating great art from thumbnail ideas to finishing touches. Readers will gain an understanding on the principles of light, the two basic ways to design a painting, an explanation of colour, his 5 stage development process, the art of seeing, outdoor painting, troubleshooting, and ways to broaden their thinking. Full length step by step demonstrations with generous captions, examples, and explanatory sidebars ensure its value as a teaching aid for artists of all levels of ability.

Babbes,Michael Zigarelli,2006 Equips ministers with essential business tools to manage and grow their churches and organizations Understanding Australian Construction Contractors Matt Stevens,John Smolders,2022-08-02 This book will provide emerging construction professionals with insights and information helpful for a successful career in the Australian construction industry This work fills a critical gap and is written by two authors with decades of experience immersed in current issues. It provides a starting point for the next generation of Australian construction contractors. Beginning with an overview of the industry, the chapters explore winning work, project operations, financial management, people skills, and selling a successful business. The authors use case studies to enrich the content and include reviews and commentaries on some of the legendary management books. In addition, readers of the book will find answers to essential industry questions: Why is construction one of the best industries in Australia? What is its most significant conflict? Which are the three most consistently profitable sectors? What are the essential ten questions to answer for standardising practices? Is work acquisition more art or science? Is it a good idea to fire a client? Why? How to identify and address the office field conflict? What is the job cost format for unifying project stakeholder information? What are the best key performance indicators for a construction contracting firm? What alignments are needed in general hiring and personnel management processes? What is the process in identifying and implementing a best practice? How do you value the market price for a construction firm? This book should be read by anyone entering the built environment sector in Australia. Universities, Colleges, and TAFEs can use this book in various construction business and operations management courses.
