Artists With Phds On The New Doctoral Degree In Studio Art:

Artists with PhDs James Elkins, 2009 This book is the second extended edition of the first of its kind It is a resource to help people artists teachers administrators and students assess and compare programs for a new PhD in Studio Art Art, Research, Philosophy Clive Cazeaux, 2017-04-11 Art Research Philosophy explores the emergent field of artistic research art produced as a contribution to knowledge As a new subject it raises several questions What is art as research Don t the requirements of research amount to an imposition on the artistic process that dilutes the power of art How can something subjective become objective What is the relationship between art and writing Doesn t description always miss the particularity of the artwork This is the first book length study to show how ideas in philosophy can be applied to artistic research to answer its questions and to make proposals for its future Clive Cazeaux argues that artistic research is an exciting development in the historical debate between aesthetics and the theory of knowledge The book draws upon Kant phenomenology and critical theory to show how the immediacies of art and experience are enmeshed in the structures that create knowledge The power of art to act on these structures is illustrated through a series of studies that look closely at a number of contemporary artworks This book will be ideal for postgraduate students and scholars of the visual and creative arts aesthetics and art theory The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorandfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial No Derivatives 4.0 license <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/9781315764610> Ethnographic Perspectives on Academic Writing Brian Paltridge, Sue Starfield, 2016-12-05 This book argues that adopting ethnographically oriented perspectives on research into academic writing is a valuable means of deepening understanding of the social influences on language use and individuals experiences in academic writing contexts helping to gain insider views of writers experiences writing practices and the contexts in which academic texts are produced and assessed Art and knowledge after 1900 James Fox, Vid Simoniti, 2023-12-12 This ground breaking new history of modern art explores the relationship between art and knowledge from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day Each chapter examines artistic responses to a particular discipline of knowledge from quantum theory and theosophy to cybernetics and ethnic futurisms The authors argue that art s incursion into other intellectual disciplines is a defining characteristic of both modernism and postmodernism Throughout the volume poses a series of larger questions is art a source of knowledge If so what kind of knowledge And ultimately can it contribute to our understanding of the world in ways that thinkers from other fields should take seriously Transitions in Writing , 2018-03-12 Transitions in Writing addresses the experiences of writers as they move between contexts of writing and juggle new and different demands Spelman Miller and Stevenson bring together research by scholars in a range of settings across the world who approach transition from different standpoints Transition is often conceived of as a change in setting coinciding with physical or temporal relocation such as between stages of an educational or professional career However writers also manage more local micro level transitions as they move between genres registers and rhetorical moves to meet the demands of the task The combination of both macro and micro level perspectives on transition offers a novel broad conception of the types of change a writer encounters and illustrates a range of methodological approaches appropriate to exploring such transitions New Nonfiction Film Dara Waldron,2018-08-09 New Nonfiction Film Art Poetics and Documentary Theory is the first book to offer a lengthy examination of the relationship between fiction and documentary from the perspective of art and poetics The premise of the book is to propose a new category of nonfiction film that is distinguished from as opposed to being conflated with the documentary film in its multiple historical guises a premise explored in case studies of films by distinguished artists and filmmakers Abbas Kiarostami Ben Rivers Chantal Akerman Ben Russell Pat Collins and Gideon Koppel The book builds a case for this new category of film calling it the new nonfiction film and argues in the process that this kind of film works to dismantle the old distinctions between fiction and documentary film and therefore the axioms of Film and Cinema Studies as a discipline of study Art + Archive Sara Callahan,2022-01-25 Art Archive provides an in depth analysis of the connection between art and the archive at the turn of the twenty first century The book examines how the archive emerged in art writing in the mid 1990s and how its subsequent ubiquity can be understood in light of wider social technological philosophical and art historical conditions and concerns Deftly combining writing on archives from different disciplines with artistic practices the book clarifies the function and meaning of one of the most persistent artworld buzzwords of recent years shedding light on the conceptual and historical implications of the so called archival turn in contemporary art A Philosophy of the Art School Michael Newall,2018-10-31 Winner of the American Society for Aesthetics 2019 Outstanding Monograph Prize Until now research on art schools has been largely occupied with the facts of particular schools and teachers This book presents a philosophical account of the underlying practices and ideas that have come to shape contemporary art school teaching in the UK US and Europe It analyses two models that hidden beneath the diversity of contemporary artist training have come to dominate art schools The first of these is essentially an old approach a training guided by the artistic values of a single artist teacher The second dates from the 1960s and is based around the group crit in which diverse voices contribute to an artist s development Understanding the underlying principles and possibilities of these two models which sit together in an uneasy tension gives new insights into the character of contemporary art school teaching demonstrating how art schools shape art and artists how they can be a potent engine of creativity in contemporary culture and how they contribute to artistic research A Philosophy of the Art School draws on first hand accounts of art school teaching and is deeply informed by disciplines ranging from art history and art theory to the philosophy of art education and creativity The Handbook of Art and Design Librarianship Amanda Gluibizzi,Paul Glassman,2010 While much attention has been paid to art librarianship as it exists in museum settings comparatively less notice has been taken of academic and art and design school art librarianship as a distinct focus However the skills of subject specialists in the arts and their advocacy on behalf of their users are fundamental elements in vital art libraries that fully support and anticipate the needs of artists designers architects and the historians who study these disciplines Put together by an international team of contributors this essential handbook examines methods of innovative librarianship in academic and art school libraries throughout the world With a focus on the intersection of best practice and best opportunities the book brings together the philosophies and realities of the most creative librarians working in the field of art librarianship today and serves as a field guide to academic art libraries in the twenty first century Key discussions include the role of liaison to the visual arts visual literacy for highly literate viewers art history pedagogy and special collections technology in an art and design library collection management renewal and de accession new forms of scholarly communication and their impact on art librarianship the making of the 21st century art library Readership This timely book is essential reading for all information professionals working in art and design environments It will also be of interest to students of librarianship interested in the challenges currently facing professionals working in this specialized area

Practice as Research in the Arts (and Beyond) Robin Nelson, 2022-05-19 This project addresses the contexts of Practice as Research and how to undertake it This second iteration updates thinking and practices but sustains a direct and clear approach on how to become a practitioner researcher New features include an extension of range beyond the arts and a case for intra disciplinarity in Practice Research as an influence in the formation of the future university A comparison is made between Artistic Research and Practice Research recognizing that research through practices with being doing knowing is central to both Acknowledging the current crisis in legitimation a broad view is taken of how things might be known by an onto epistemology for the twenty first century foregrounding the bodymind but sustaining rationality and community by way of Other other dialogic exchange Perspectives from around the world in Part II offset the more Eurocentric emphasis in Part I
