Missions of Interdependence, 2021-11-01. At the beginning of the twenty first century it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital. In this book thirty five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English speaking world. Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts. They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations. They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion, interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices, silences and taboos established by discrimination against race, class and gender.

Bad Indians Book Club Patty Krawec, 2025-09-16. A fascinating advanced seminar about how to think, read, think about reading and think about Indigenous lives. Booklist starred review. In this powerful reframing of the stories that make us Anishinaabe, writer Patty Krawec leads us into the borderlands of history, science, memoir and fiction to ask: What worlds do books written by marginalized people describe and invite us to inhabit? When a friend asked what books could help them understand Indigenous lives, Patty Krawec, author of Becoming Kin, gave them a list. This list became a book club and then a podcast about a year of Indigenous reading and then this book. The writers in Bad Indians Book Club refuse to let dominant stories displace their own and resist the way wemitigoozhiwag (European settlers) craft the prevailing narrative and decide who they are. In Bad Indians Book Club we examine works about history, science and gender as well as fiction, all written from the perspective of Bad Indians, marginalized writers whose refusal to comply with dominant narratives opens up new worlds. Interlacing chapters with short stories about Deer Woman, who is on her own journey to decide who she is, Krawec leads us into a place of wisdom and medicine where the stories of marginalized writers help us imagine other ways of seeing the world As Krawec did for her friend she recommends a list of books to fill in the gaps on our own bookshelves and in our understanding Becoming Kin which novelist Omar El Akkad called a searing spear of light led readers to talk back to the histories they had received Now in Bad Indians Book Club comes a potent challenge to all the stories settler colonialism tells stories that erase and appropriate deny and deflect Following Deer Woman who is shaped by the profuse artistry of Krawec we enter the multiple worlds Indigenous and other subaltern stories create Together we venture to the edges of worlds waiting to be born Indian Women Novelists in English Jaydipsinh Dodiya, 2006 Contributed essays
