A History of Women Philosophers M.E. Waithe, 1995 Like their predecessors and like their male counterparts most women philosophers of the 20th century have significant expertise in several specialities Moreover their work represents the gamut of 20th century philosophy's interests in moral pragmatism logical positivism philosophy of mathematics of psychology and of mind Their writings include feminist philosophy classical moral theory reevaluated in light of Kant Mill and the 19th century feminist and abolitionist movements and issues in logic and perception Included in the fourth volume of the series are discussions of L Susan Stebbing Edith Stein Hedwig Conrad Martius Simone de Beauvoir Simone Weil Mary Whiton Calkins Gerda Walther and others While pre 20th century women philosophers were usually self educated those of the 20th century had greater access to academic preparation in philosophy Yet for all the advances made by women philosophers over two and a half millennia the philosophers discussed in this volume were sometimes excluded from full participation in academic life and sometimes denied full professional academic status

The Significance of Religious Experience Howard Wettstein, 2014-11-12 In this volume of essays Howard Wettstein explores the foundations of religious commitment His orientation is broadly naturalistic but not in the mode of reductionism or eliminativism This collection explores questions of broad religious interest but does so through a focus on the author's religious tradition Judaism Among the issues explored are the nature and role of awe ritual doctrine religious experience the distinction between belief and faith problems of evil and suffering with special attention to the Book of Job and to the Akedah the biblical story of the binding of Isaac the virtue of forgiveness One of the book's highlights is its literary as opposed to philosophical approach to theology that at the same time makes room for philosophical exploration of religion Another is Wettstein's rejection of the usual picture that sees religious life as sitting atop a distinctive metaphysical foundation one that stands in need of epistemological justification
