As The Crow Flies My Journey To Ironman World Champion:

As the Crow Flies Craig Alexander, 2012 This is a fascinating behind the scenes look at what it takes to be the best Australian. Craig Alexander is the Ironman World Champion and world record holder with striking black and white photography. A Life Without Limits Chrissie Wellington, 2012-02-23 Chrissie Wellington is the world's No 1 female Ironman triathlete, a four times World Champion having recently won her fourth title in October 2011 and the World Record holder. In 2009 she was voted Sunday Times Sportswoman of the Year and in 2010 was awarded the MBE. She is the undefeated champion of Triathlon having won thirteen Ironman titles from thirteen races. She set a new World Record of 8 hours 19 13 at Quella Roth Germany in 2010 which slashed over 14 minutes from the previous record and where she was only beaten by six men. She went on to improve this time by another minute in the 2011 race. She also set a new world record for the fastest ever Ironman sanctioned event at Ironman South Africa in April 2011. Chrissie has displayed unprecedented levels of stamina, strength and competitiveness in becoming Ironman World Champion in only her second event at Ironman level. Her victory in Kona Hawaii in 2007 finishing five minutes ahead of her nearest rival was described as the biggest upset in Ironman history and a remarkable feat deemed to be a near impossible task for any athlete racing as a rookie at their first Ironman World Championships. She defended her World title in Hawaii in 2008 and again in 2009. However, a bout of severe sickness on the eve of the 2010 event meant she was unable to make the start line to defend her title. She bounced back in 2011 to retain her title in her most fiercely competitive race to date which adds another fantastic chapter to her extraordinary sporting career. This is the remarkable story of how a Norfolk girl, a sporty kid swimming, playing hockey, running but never excelling and always more interested in the social side of the sports scene, became a world champion. A Life Without Limits Wellington Chrissie Aylwin Michael, 2014-07-01 A female Ironman traces her rise to the top of the triathlon world, describing her international training, struggles with anorexia, relationship with a controversial coach and astonishing win at the Ironman World Championships.
