Barnstorm Raphael Kadushin, 2005-02-28 Though the best American writers live everywhere now a popular fiction persists our strongest literary voices are strictly bi-coastal ones Barnstorm sets out to disprove that cliché and to undermine another one as well the sense of regional fiction as something quaint slightly regressive and full of local color The stories in this collection capture our global reality with a ruthless unaffected voice Lorrie Moore's The Jewish Hunter is a dark romance that's by turns cynical and guileless Mack Friedman catches the smoking feel of first love in his Setting the Lawn on Fire and Jesse Lee Kercheval's Brazil is a raucous ultimately mournful road trip For Jane Hamilton Wisconsin is a gorgeous but bittersweet homecoming and for Kelly Cherry in her achingly elegiac As It Is in Heaven it's the hopeful new world juxtaposed with a bleak tweedy England Dwight Allen's The Green Suit evokes the young man edging toward adulthood in a New York that s as flamboyant as an opera and Tenaya Darlington in her A Patch of Skin constructs a pure horror story because the horror of loneliness is something we all know Together Barnstorm s eclectic voices suggest that every coast now even the Great Lakes shores are at the very center of our best and truest national literature Not for sale in the United Kingdom
